

TEUTONS CONTINUE DRIVE

"Wilson Day" Observed Throughout Nation

RUMANIA IN THE GRIP OF TWO INVADING FORCES

London, Oct. 28.—The Teutonic drive against Rumania continues with little diminished velocity, new successes for both Field Marshal Von Mackensen and General Von Falkenhayn being announced. Hirsova, on the Danube, has been occupied by the Germans. Yesterday's official statements reports Field Marshal Von Mackensen's advance forces to have reached this district where their line stretches across the Dobrudja, 40 to 80 miles north of the Constanza-Tcheravoda Railway to Cuspeku on the Black Sea side.

According to unofficial reports from Petrograd a notable advance has been made by the Austro-German forces invading Rumania from the north.

General Von Falkenhayn's forces are now said to have reached Campulung, 20 miles south of the Rumanian frontier. From Campulung the plain stretches away towards Bucharest, 80 miles distant.

Today's German official statement does not confirm the capture of Campulung, announcing the situation on this front, virtually unchanged, except that the Austro-German forces have taken a height south of Kronstadt from the Rumanians and advanced thence to the Partzuga Valley.

On the Moldavian frontier of Rumania where a more successful stand has been made against the Teutonic allies, the Russo-Rumanian defense appears to be weakening. Petrograd reports a strong offensive by Austro-German forces in the Dorna Watra region near the Bukovina line where violent attacks have compelled the Russian advanced posts to fall back. Berlin reports the capture of several heights in this sector by the Austrian troops of Archduke Charles Francis.

Supposedly in an effort to aid the hard pressed Rumanians the Russians are reported to be on the eve of a great offensive in Galicia and Poland. This report comes to Rome from German sources says a wireless despatch from the Italian capital.

The French are pressing their offensive in the Verdun region and according to Paris have captured in a hand grenade attack the quarry northeast of Fort Douaumont. Berlin declares several French attacks yesterday in the Douaumont region and elsewhere along the line of the new French advance were sanguinarily repulsed.

On the Somme front Berlin announces the repulse of strong attacks by both the British and French yesterday in the Guendecourt-Les Bœufs and Morval regions north of the Somme.

Teutonic Troops Claim Victory

Berlin, Oct. 28.—(By wireless to Sayville).—The Russians have renewed their attacks on the Austro-German lines west of Lutsk in Volhynia, the war office announced today delivering an assault yesterday after two days' artillery preparation in the vicinity of Zaturze. The attack, according to the official statement, failed completely with heavy losses to the Russians.

Teutonic troops have won a victory in the Dorna Watra region near the junction point of the frontiers of Bukovina, Transylvania and Rumania.

Austro-Hungarian forces captured several heights from the Russians at the point of the bayonet and took more than 600 prisoners.

On the northern frontier of Rumania, Austro-German forces captured from the Rumanians a height in the region south of Kronstadt and extended their advance into the Partzuga Valley.

Teutonic-Bulgarian-Turkish forces under command of Field Marshal Von Mackensen continue their pursuit of the Russian and Rumanian armies in Northern Dobrudja, add the official statement. The forces of the Central Powers and their Allies are meeting with little resistance, it is declared. Five hundred isolated soldiers have been taken prisoner, and several munition columns and other war materials have been captured.

Allies Renew Their Attacks

Infantry engagements between the Anglo-French and German forces on the north bank of the Somme river began anew yesterday, says the statement.

Preceded by a strong artillery preparation, the statement adds, the British troops attacked across the line of Guendecourt and Les Bœufs while the French moved forward in the district of Morval. The Anglo-French attacks were repulsed by artillery and machine gun fire and northeast of Morval they were driven back by the Germans after bayonet fighting. All the German positions were completely maintained, the announcement declares.

On the east bank of the river Meuse north of Vienna there were heavy engagements which were successful for the Germans. French forces attacked from Thionville Wood and on both sides of Fort Douaumont and in the Fumin Wood. All the attacks are said to have been broken down in front of the German positions with heavy losses to the French.

Rumania In Grip Of Two Armies

London, Oct. 28.—Rumania, caught in the grip of two invading forces of the central powers, is still struggling desperately to ward off the incessant attacks of Field Marshal Von Mackensen and General Van Falkenhayn.

Advancing northward in Dobrudja, Van Mackensen's troops have reached a line running from Hirsova, on the Danube, to Cuspeku, on the Black Sea Coast, from forty to sixty miles from where they crossed the Constanza-Tcheravoda railroad line. The capture of Hirsova would give the Teutonic allies the advantage of having little marshy ground to traverse should they attempt to make a crossing of the river here into old Rumania, as the low-lying ground

NEW DIMES CIRCULATED

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 28.—The new ten cent pieces were put into circulation today for the first time. The obverse side of the new dime shows a head of liberty in profile, while the reverse side shows a bundle of rods in the center and the protruding battle axe, symbols of unity. Surrounding the central design is an olive wreath, denoting peace.

HUGHES HAS A NARROW ESCAPE

Oswego, N. Y., Oct. 28.—The special train of Charles E. Hughes narrowly missed running down the Republican presidential candidate who was in an automobile when he returned to the railroad station after making a campaign speech here today. Mr. Hughes' automobile drove directly in front of the train which, having left the station to turn around while the candidate was speaking, was not visible around the curve as it was pulling back into the station.

A band was playing and the noise of the approaching train could not be heard. The automobile backed away in time to avert an accident. It ran into the machine just behind and the crowd on the tracks scattered quickly. The train was brought to an abrupt stop without injury to any one.

WEATHER PREDICTIONS FOR THE WEEK

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Sunday, issued by the Weather Bureau today included:

Ohio Valley.—Generally fair and warm first part of week, followed by showers about Wednesday, and fair and much colder weather thereafter.

Great Lakes Region.—Overcast with high temperatures first half of week, much colder latter half. Rain by Tuesday and Wednesday, probably changing to snow Wednesday in upper lake region.

BURNING SHIP SAFE

London, Oct. 28.—The French line steamer Chicago has arrived at Fayal, Azores, according to Lloyd's. The utmost was done to extinguish the fire aboard the steamer.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 28.—M. B. Campbell, 64, carpenter, slipped and fell backwards a distance of three feet. His neck was broken and he died almost instantly.

WOMAN KEPT PRISONER FOR 10 MONTHS, CLAIMED

Youngstown, O., Oct. 28.—Enslaved for ten months in a basement cubby-hole, without light and but meagre food, Miss Marie Higgins, 27, returned almost as from the grave at the Mahoning county infirmary at Canfield, twelve miles from here today. She was nearly blind from lack of light and could scarcely speak because she was so weak, but she managed to tell Infirmary Superintendent Charles Lee, that Joe Zrak, also an inmate of the institution, was responsible for her imprisonment.

When she emerged from her cell she wore a man's blue working shirt, which she said Zrak had given her, and her only other clothing was a suit of ragged underwear, a pair of badly worn stockings and slippers.

GREAT BRITAIN REITERATES THE RIGHT TO BLACKLIST

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—Great Britain's note in reply to American representations against the commercial black list was received today at the state department. It is understood to reiterate the contention for the right to blacklist but offers methods of relief to Americans in certain circumstances.

The British note is in reply to the American note of July 28, which denounced the blacklist as "an arbitrary interference with neutral trade," and "inconsistent with that true justice, sincere amity and impartial fairness which should characterize the dealings of friendly governments with one another."

The names of some American firms already have been taken from the blacklist and the British note is understood to offer means of removing others.

The British note is understood to take the line of argument that it is unprecedented for a neutral to claim that a belligerent should in effect compel its subjects to trade with the enemy, and that it violates no law for the British government to prevent its subjects from doing so. While the British government admits the rights of all persons in neutral countries to engage in legitimate commercial transactions, it argues that such a right does not limit the right of other governments to restrict the activities of their own nationals.

The point at issue in the controversy is whether the nationality of the domicile of the owner of goods gives character as neutral or belligerent. Previously Great Britain and the United States have agreed that domicile was decisive, regardless of nationality. The continental European position has been that nationality was decisive. In the previous negotiations over the blacklist Great Britain took a position between the two theories.

The subject probably will be carried on in further diplomatic correspondence.

A BOMB IMPERILS KAISER

Paris, Oct. 28.—A bomb dropped by an aviator of the entente allies has killed the engineer driving the train of Emperor William of Germany, according to information received at Zurich, Switzerland.

Emperor William recently was reported to be at Bapaume, on the Somme front, personally overseeing the preliminaries for a counter-offensive for which the German troops there were said to have received strong reinforcements.

Apparently during this visit he delivered a brief speech to the German troops thanking them for the "heroic manner" in which they had fought for four months.

On Monday last, the Emperor was in Berlin on a brief visit and conferred with the imperial chancellor and visited the palace at Potsdam. His movements since then have not been reported.

MORE SHIPS ARE SUNK

London, Oct. 28.—Lloyd's Shipping Agency announces that the steamer Rowanmore, 10,320 tons, has been sunk. Lloyd's also announced the sinking of the steamer Skog.

The Norwegian steamer Bygdo has been sunk off Christiania, Norway, and her crew has been landed. The British steam trawler Fuchsia has been sunk and her crew imprisoned in Germany.

The Norwegian steamer Fritzoe, while bound from Larvik, Norway, to London with a cargo of boards, has been taken to Cuxhaven.

BANK ROBBERS

Toledo, O., Oct. 28.—The safety deposit vault of the State Savings Bank at Maumee was blown by five men at 6 o'clock this morning. Explosion of charges of nitroglycerine awakened J. M. Hingebom, who lives near the bank. He fired three shots in the darkness in the general direction of the fire and fled. All the shots went wild. The cracksmen took with them Postmaster H. M. Pomeroy's safety deposit box containing $500 worth of stamps. They escaped in an automobile.

ELECTED OFFICERS

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 28.—The American Public Health Association convention closed here today with the election of the following officers: President, Dr. Wm. A. Evans, Chicago; secretary, Selkirk M. Gunn, Boston; treasurer, Dr. Lee M. Frankel, New York.

FOUR BURNED

Haskell, N. J., Oct. 28.—Three men were probably mortally burned and four others less seriously injured by a powder "flare up" at the Haskell plant of the E. I. DuPont de Nemours Powder Co. late yesterday. The "flare" was caused by the ignition of a bag of powder which fell under the wheels of a train car and set fire to the load on the car.

CANNOT ACCEPT LIQUOR

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—Warning to postmasters that under no circumstances may intoxicating liquors be accepted for transmission through the mails, was sent out from the post office department today. Numerous reports had come recently of the mailing of liquors in violation of the postal laws and regulations. This indicates, the department says, that postal employees are not familiar with the regulations on the subject.

Republican Contributions Total Over Million Dollars

New York, Oct. 28.—Republican campaign contributions up to October 23, inclusive, totalled $1,067,767.29 according to the national committee's report of receipts and disbursements made public here today by Cornelius N. Bliss, Jr., treasurer of the committee. This amount came from 22,226 contributors.

The report which under the law must be filed in Washington not later than ten days before election, shows that the disbursements up to the night of October 23, were $1,578,934.36. The four largest contributions were Harry Payne Whitney, who gave $30,000; and R. T. Crane, Jr., of Chicago, Arthur Curtis James and George F. Baker, Jr., who gave $25,000 each.

Mr. Bliss in giving out the report said that a "unique feature" of the financing of the Republican National Campaign had been the success of the effort to popularize the givings of the funds.

"Whereas four years ago," he said, "the contributors to the Republican national committee numbered slightly more than 2,000 this year the total number is 22,226. For some time past $10 checks for sustaining membership contributions have been coming in at the New York headquarters at the rate of at least 500 a day. On the 23rd of October, the last date covered by this report, there were received at the New York headquarters more than 1,300 such checks."

Other large contributors were: Edward S. Harkness, Clarence H. Mackay, W. R. Allen, $20,000 each; J. S. Baugh & Co., A. D. Week, it was announced, four cars full of negroes were sent north through Memphis, Tennessee and Louisville while large numbers, it was declared, recently have been transported from Alabama to Louisville to Northern states.

It was stated investigation had disclosed that a large number of voters had been transported from the south on party tickets to Indiana, Ohio and Michigan. This, it was announced, four cars full of negroes were sent north through Memphis, Tennessee and Louisville while large numbers, it was declared, recently have been transported from Alabama to Louisville to Northern states.

The department, it was announced, will endeavor to learn whether the exodus was due to attractive wage offers or to other influences.

PROBE IS ORDERED

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 27.—U. S. District Attorney Perry B. Miller announced the Department of Justice at Washington had instructed him to ascertain the names, point of origin and destination of negroes or any other colored persons from southern states, particularly Alabama and Kentucky, who have recently may have passed through Louisville to Northern states.

It was stated investigation had disclosed that a large number of voters had been transported from the south on party tickets to Indiana, Ohio and Michigan. This, it was announced, four cars full of negroes were sent north through Memphis, Tennessee and Louisville while large numbers, it was declared, recently have been transported from Alabama to Louisville to Northern states.

The department, it was announced, will endeavor to learn whether the exodus was due to attractive wage offers or to other influences.

IMMENSE AUDIENCE HEARS THE PRESIDENT

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 28.—Making his motto "Co-operation" President Wilson spoke here today at the principal meeting of a series of gatherings in many states arranged by the Democratic National Committee in celebration of "Wilson Day". The occasion was also known as "Empire State Day" here, because delegations of organized Democrats, Progressives, Independents and women from New York journeyed on special trains from New York City and state to greet the president and assure him of their support.

The president spoke for woman suffrage, declared that American law has not kept pace with American sentiment and that what was legal has begun to play a more important part in our thoughts and determinations than what is human and right.

He outlined the legislative achievements of his administration and sketched broadly a program for the future, including the making of courts of justice out of our courts of law and the establishment of a permanent peace.

Mr. Wilson's address was delivered to the largest gathering yet assembled at Shadow Lawn to hear his Saturday afternoon campaign speeches.

WILL MAKE EFFORT TO BOOST BIBLE CLASSES

In an effort to build up the men's bible class in this city, an enthusiastic meeting, by those interested was held at the First Christian church Friday evening. In all twenty-seven of the leading Sunday school workers in the city were present and judging from the enthusiasm displayed the scheme will develop into the greatest bible school movement ever attempted in this city.

Recently an item appeared in The Daily Times stating that more than 6000 voters had registered in the city. When it becomes known that but few more than 1000 men are regular attendants at bible school, it can be better understood what a great field there is for work.

The meeting was called to order by John E. Williams, president of the Loyal Men's class of the First Christian church bible school.

John McMillan, former president of the men's bible class of Trinity Methodist church, was unanimously chosen chairman of the meeting and in a few well-chosen remarks laid his plans before those present. Mr. McMillan was very insistent to have it known that this was a laymen's movement, a chance for the men of the community to work hand in glove to make Portsmouth a really big Sunday school city, one where the men would be found in large numbers.

The short talks by all present, followed with enthusiasm and every person pledged himself to work untiringly to build up the men's classes. The movement is strictly a non-denominational affair, and one that will result in an interchange of ideas.

So enthusiastic was the meeting that it was decided to make the organization a permanent affair, and a committee to devise ways and means for perfecting an organization was named. The committee consists of Charles M. Howland, Orson Ogier, W. W. Gates, E. F. Ricketts and John McMillan. Another meeting will be held in the near future.

Duffy Also Coming

Geo. L. Gableman, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, stated, Saturday that Thos. J. Duffy, a member of the State Industrial Commission, and one of the leading Democrats of Ohio, would speak at the Democratic rally to be held on next Thursday evening. As originally announced, Senator Charles A. Towne, of New York, was to be the only speaker, but there has been such an insistent demand from local democrats to hear

Mr. Duffy, that the state committee has agreed to send him along. Mr. Duffy is not only a convincing speaker, but stands high in union labor circles, being past president of the Potters' Union. The meeting, if weather permits will be an our door affair, but if weather conditions are unfavorable the meeting will be held at Distel's Hall, Seventh and Chillicothe streets. The River City band will furnish music for the occasion.

Going To Massachusetts. John Kaps will leave Monday for Springfield, Mass., on a short visit.

OBITUARY

Allen Funeral

The funeral of Oscar Allen's baby son, Paul Everett, will take place from the family home on Mound street at 12 o'clock Monday noon.

Edward Flannigan Funeral

The remains of Edward Flannigan, the Portsmouth shoemaker, who while en route to Cleveland to take employment, was run over and killed by an N. & W. train near Chillicothe, arrived here Friday evening and were removed to his home on Front street. The funeral took place from St. Mary's church Saturday morning. Rev. Arthur T. A. Goebel preached a touching sermon. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Christian Flannigan of Wheelersburg, James and Louis Flannigan, Thos. McQuaide, Will McElhurray and Charles Sommer of this city. Burial took place in the parish cemetery.

Henry T. Gose

Henry T. Gose, 34, for years a resident of Vanceburg, died several days ago in Lexington. He was well known in Portsmouth. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Cecil Calvert, of this city.

Toney Napt

Toney Napt, Italian, 50 years of age, died at Hempstead hospital at two o'clock Saturday afternoon. He underwent an operation for gallstones four weeks ago. About four months ago he was in the hospital for sometime and later resumed work for the W. H. Allen Construction Company on the C. & O. Northern railway route near Harrisonville. The remains were removed to Lynn's morgue, where they will be held until some relatives of the man are located.

Paul Everett Allen

Paul Everett Allen, bright little fourteen-month-old baby son of Oscar Allen, a molder at the Whitaker-Glessner company's plant, died at the family home, No. 1323 Mound street, Saturday morning at 2 o'clock. The child had been suffering with stomach trouble for the past eight days. Besides the grief-stricken parents he is survived by an only brother, Nelson Allen, aged 8 years. No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral, but it will probably take place Monday.

Mrs. Caroline Feurt

Mrs. Caroline Feurt, aged 73, for many years an honored and highly esteemed resident of Franklin Furnace, passed away Saturday morning, her death taking place at the home of her faithful daughter, Mrs. Jennie Gerlach. Several years ago

Mrs. Feurt was stricken with paralysis and since that time she had practically been an invalid.

Mrs. Feurt was a widow of the late Clinton Feurt, who died four years ago. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Jennie Gerlach, one son, Albert Feurt, of this city, and four sisters and two brothers: Mrs. J. C. Lindsay, of Geneva, O., Mrs. P. J. Brown, of Sciotoville, Mrs. George M. Salladay, of this city, Mrs. John P. Noel, of this city, and John Feurt, who is in Canada, and Will Feurt, of the Scioto Trail.

Mrs. Feurt was a most estimable woman and she will be missed. Kind and charitable to all, she was a sweet and lovable character.

G. F. Coldiron

G. F. Coldiron, aged 67, of Catlettsburg, Ky., and formerly of Portsmouth, was suddenly called by death on Thursday, Oct. 27, at 3 o'clock, at Catlettsburg. His death was due to a complication of diseases, which has been preying on him for the past year. The deceased was well known in Portsmouth and was well liked. He leaves three sons, S. H., of Columbus, Taylor, of Washington, C. H., and Clarence, of Catlettsburg, and four daughters, Mrs. James Barnett, Vina and Bertha at Catlettsburg, and Mrs. Milt Salver, of Sixth street, Portsmouth, besides a host of friends to mourn his loss. His wife and one son preceded him to the Great Beyond.

Harold Child

Harold, nine days old child of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Child of 1217 Elm street, died of infantile Friday night at 11 o'clock. The funeral services were held Saturday and interment will be in Greenlawn.

Beautiful 'Sun' Gas Lights

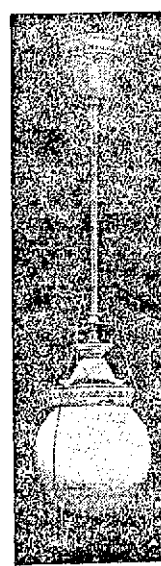

Now's the time to light up your business places efficiently and attractively with "SUN" Gas Arc Lamps.

"SUN" Gas Arcs are hygienic.

"SUN" Gas Arcs give a better quality and whiter illumination than electricity.

Public appreciation of gas lighting is reviving. You can reduce your lighting bills from 25 to 50 per cent by using efficient gas arc lights.

Did you know that gas lighting was reinstated in the United States Military Academy a West Point because other illuminants made the students' eyesight poor?

WAR

General Von Falkenhayn continues to make progress in the direction of Compulung, south of Pzodan, on the Transylvania front, and Bucharest admits a retirement of the Rumanian forces in the Jial valley, which is situated in the Vulcan pass region. The Russo-Rumanian forces, to the north, have repulsed Austro-German attacks, while in the Usal valley the Rumanians continue to advance and in the region of Okna have occupied a height and a village.

Inclement weather is hampering the operations on the Somme and Macedonian fronts and only bombardments have taken place in these regions. Another attempt by the Germans at an attack west of the village of Douaumont in the Verdun region was checked by the French curtain of fire. The Germans are still heavily bombarding all the newly won positions of the French in this region.

On the eastern front, in Russia there has been little fighting except in the region of the Shara river northwest of Pinsk. Near Galdoviza German attacks forced the Russians to retire to the eastern bank of the Shara.

French Take Tonten Army

Paris, Oct. 28.—The French forces in the region of Verdun last night captured by the use of hand grenades the quarry held by the Germans to the northeast of Fort Douaumont. It was officially announced by the French war department today. A brisk artillery duel continues in the region of Douaumont. On the

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good they possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co., Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price 50c per bottle. LOCAL NEWS

Jeff Hunter, a New Boston steel worker, was arraigned in police court Saturday morning on charges of annoying his former wife, Mrs. Kate Bahner, of Walnut street, East Portsmouth who was divorced from him two years ago.

Mrs. Bahner said Hunter had come to her home on the morning of October 9 and that she told him he would have to remain away from her home. He returned a few hours later, she said, and she refused to respond to his knock at the door. She said he came twice again and appeared to be staggering. She said she went out the back way to the home of neighbors and called the police but that

PRESBYTERIAN MEN WILL "CALL"

Fifty men of the First Presbyterian church will call on members of the "Old First" between the hours of two and four o'clock Sunday afternoon. The "call" is to be strictly a social one, the object being to visit and tell all the good things that are going on at the church. It is expected to reach a large number who have not been attending church regularly. The feature of the "calling" is that the men alone are taking part. All members are urged to be at home between 2 and 4 tomorrow afternoon.

CHANGE IN HOUR OF SERVICES

All members of Manly church are requested to notice that a change has been made in the time of the morning and evening services. The morning services now begin at 10:15 a. m., instead of 10:30 o'clock. The evening services begin at seven o'clock, instead of 7:30 p. m.

School For Firemen

To increase the efficiency in the local fire department, Fire Chief Geo. Koerner has inaugurated schools at each of the three engine houses. Twice a week the firemen meet and discuss the best ways to fight fires and offer suggestions to increase the efficiency of the local department.

One of the first set of instructions issued to the firemen by the Chief was that when the department was completely motorized that the speed limit would be twenty five miles an hour.

The co-operation of the public is urged when the departments are making runs to fires. In speaking of this Saturday, the Chief said that the citizens could assist in many ways. For instance, he said that all traffic should stop and pull along side the curb while the trucks passed. It only requires a few minutes and saves time.

He declared that any persons stopping within twenty-five feet of a water plug with a vehicle would be prosecuted.

Dies From Burns

Mrs. Frank Switalski, Jr., of Second street, received word Saturday of the death of a cousin, Mrs. Lizzie Zimmar-Bihman due to burns received when her dress ignited from flames in a cook above at her home in Yorkville, Ind. She lived twenty-four hours after the accident. Besides her husband, a Big Four railway employee, she leaves two adopted children.

To Hold Many Meetings

F. W. Lough, chairman of the state executive committee of the Prohibition party arrived at Sciotoville Saturday morning. John Huddleston, 300 pound basso singer, who was to have accompanied Mr. Lough is ill with pneumonia and will be unable to fill his local engagement.

At six o'clock this evening an open meeting will be held at Sciotoville when Mr. Lough will give a talk on Prohibition. On the Government Square tonight at 7:30 he will deliver a political talk that will be of interest to every voter. Sunday will be spent in the local churches. Mr. Lough is an ordained minister and will not discuss politics in pulpit.

At nine o'clock he will be at the First Christian Bible school. From the Christian church he will go to Trinity church where he will take charge of the men's bible class. Mr. Lough taught this class when he was here before.

The big meeting will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. at Trinity church when Mr. Lough will deliver an address. This will be a mass meeting for women and men. The final meeting will be held Sunday evening at Manly church at seven o'clock.

Friday Real Estate Agent W. H. Shonkwer made two rapid fire deals. In the morning he engineered the deal whereby N. W. Kent bought the seven room house and the vacant corner lot on Robinson avenue and Summit street from Anna Walker. In the afternoon Mr. Shonkwer sold the property to William Hazlebeck for Mr. Kent. Glen Rardin sold to Walter Hyatt, a modern 7 room two story house on the east side of Waller street near Kinney's Lane. In exchange Mr. Rardin received a five room two story house on Oakland avenue near Eighteenth. Mr. Shonkwer closed the deal.

"Wilson Day" Observed At Democratic Headquarters

Wilson Day was fittingly observed by the Democrats of Scioto county Saturday afternoon at a large and enthusiastic meeting, held at the Democratic headquarters, Masonic Temple.

Shortly after two o'clock, Hon. Will A. Inman, accompanied by Walter W. Warwick, comptroller of currency, Washington, D. C., a former Lucasville boy, arrived from Cincinnati. Mr. Inman was presented with a copy of the proclamation, which was issued by President Woodrow Wilson in whose honor the meeting was held, and read the same in an eloquent and able manner.

The message sent to the American people by President Wilson was lustily cheered and applauded by the assemblage.

Similar meetings were held in almost every city and town in the United States Saturday afternoon.

At 12:30 o'clock a joint meeting of the Scioto Democratic Central and Executive committees was held at headquarters, where arrangements were made for the remaining days of the campaign.

The proclamation issued by President Wilson and read by Hon. Will A. Inman follows:

My Fellow-citizens:

"This is called 'Wilson Day' only because for six years, first as governor of New Jersey and then as president of the United States, I have been permitted to lead first a great state and then a great national party along the ways of progress and of enlarged and regenerated life, which our people had so long sought and so long been held back from by the organized power of selfish interest, and because the great honor has fallen to me of being chosen once more spokesman and representative of the men who mean to hold the country to these ways of peace, humanity and progress. It is of these forces that I shall speak and not of myself, who am merely their servant.

"What are these forces? Whence do they spring? What have they accomplished, and what is their programme and purpose for the future? It is plain what they are. They are the forces of humane, righteous, and patriotic purpose which have sprung up in our day in the minds of those who perceive the shortcomings of the law as it has hardened in America and who look forward with purpose and conviction to a new age in which government shall be indeed the servant of liberty and not of privilege. These are men who perceive that American law has not kept pace with American sentiment; that our law has been holding us rigid and immovable, until class has begun in free America, to be arrayed against class; until what was legal has begun to play a more important part in our thoughts and determinations than what is human and right; and until America has begun to lag instead of lead in reconciling that which ought to be.

"A new age had dawned upon us while those who were attempting to lead us were stumbling along with their heads upon their shoulders, intent upon preserving the conditions of a day that is gone. America had changed and the whole world had changed. Our commerce and industry had grown to such a bulk that the domestic markets of which our former leaders were always so solicitous were glutted and we were bound, unless we were to burst our jacket, to find a free outlet into the markets of the world. The time had come when our commerce needed freedom and would be throttled by further restraints. We had acquired foreign possessions, had been drawn into the politics of the world, had begun to play a part which could not be played by provincials but must be played by citizens of the great world of nations. And yet we had not altered our policy or our point of view. The great European war had served at least to show us this one thing, that the world itself had changed; that it had become at once too big a world and too little a world to submit its destinies to the hostile rivalries and ambitions now of this and again of that member of the great family of men; too compact, too intimate in its contacts, too universal in its ways of intercourse, to make it any longer possible to limit the effects of any nation's action to a single, separate sphere where the rest would be undisturbed. An inevitable partnership of interests has been thrust upon the nations. They are neighbors and must accommodate their interests to one another, or else disturb the lives and embarrass the fortunes of men everywhere. No wonder that in such an age men in America should be cried awake and feel once more, as they felt them in the days when their great republic was set up, the compulsions of humanity and of justice!

New Day In American Politics

"These are the freshening winds blowing out of the life of mankind everywhere, that have brought on a new day in American politics. We have looked once more very critically at our own laws and our own practices and have set about to square them with the actual conditions of our life and the life of the world.

"Four years ago there were two parties in the field whose programme was conceived under the influence of these great forces of progress and adjustment, the Democratic party and the Progressive party. This year there is but one, the Democratic party. In the presidential election of four years ago some fifteen million votes were cast. Of these, nearly ten and a half millions were cast for the candidates of the two progressive parties, only three and a half millions for the candidate of the Republican party, the party which lingered in the old ways and felt none of the new impulse of a new day. More than two-thirds of the voters of the United States favored them, and favor now, a programme whose object is to serve the changing needs of humanity and progress.

"The Democratic party was entrusted with the task. These powerful forces of the new age were put under its direction. And under that direction what have they accomplished? They have put both the business and the life of the country upon a new footing. They have released the financial credit, upon which commerce and production alike depend, from the control of small groups of financiers and bankers of the speculative centers. They have released the commerce and industry of the country from the domination of those who were building up their power by selfish and unfair methods of competition. They have supplied those who wished to conduct their business in conformity with the spirit of the laws with friendly guidance and delivered them from a nervous fear of the courts. They have released our foreign trade from the shackles of a tariff contrived in the interest of special groups of favored producers, and have created a Tariff Commission intended to substitute public for private influences, facts for theories and pretensions, in all future legislation with regard to duties and restrictions on imports. They have made provision for the immediate and systematic development of our carrying trade on the sea. They have at last supplied the means by which the nation may be bound together, materially and spiritually, by a network of good roads upon which both commodities and sympathies may move freely from community to community. They have put the farmer upon a footing of perfect equality with business men and men of all other callings in respect of his access to commercial credit; have placed a great bureau of the government at his service in seeking and finding his best markets; have protected him by the establishment of definite standards in the sale of his products, and have put the scientific knowledge of the world at his disposal by practical demonstration at the expense of the government upon the farms, themselves. They have emancipated the laborers of the country from the unjustified restraints which the courts had put upon them by mistaken applications of old law to new circumstances and conditions. They have released the children of the country in large part from harmful labor; have sought to safeguard the lives and the health of our laborers in dangerous occupations; and have put agencies of the government itself at the service of those who seek employment. And most of these things have been done within the brief limits of a single administration.

"And still the great work is not finished. It can never be rounded off and concluded so long as circumstances change and the fortunes and relations of men shift and alter. The question you have to decide one week from next Tuesday is whether it shall be prematurely interrupted, perhaps for a generation to come, and all the generous forces of the age and of the world thrown back upon themselves in discouragement and confusion.

Program To Be Continued

"The programme remaining is as great as the programme accomplished. The procedure of our courts is antiquated and a hindrance, not an aid, in the just administration of the law. We must simplify and reform it as other enlightened nations have done, and make courts of justice out of our courts of law. We must seek and find the means of bringing capital and labor to a clear understanding of their common interests, which are no other than the interests of the nation itself as a community. We must release our great undeveloped natural resources upon some sensible plan of use and conservation. We must recruit the votes of forward-looking men by the votes of women so that we may have a fresh insight in all matters of social reform and move more promptly in the solution of the many new problems of society with which the law must benevolently deal. We must unite the Americans, North and South, in a new sympathy and co-operation. We must seek justice and the right through every channel that offers; and we must put America in all its force, in all its wealth, alike of physical power and spiritual enthusiasm, at the service of the other nations of the world when peace comes on the other side of the seas, to make that peace permanent by establishing it on the everlasting foundations of right, co-operation, equality and justice. These things we must do and all else that may serve mankind.

Motto Must Be 'Co-operation'

"And our motto must be 'CO-OPERATION,' the union, not the hostile rivalry, of the forces of society within the nation and within the family of nations! The interests of mankind can never again be served by aggression; the interest of no nation or group of nations can never again be served by aggression. The contests of jealousy are as bitter and as dangerous as the contests of arms. The world must henceforth seek the means of accommodation, not the means of arresting quarrels merely. The nation we love and serve must be among the first and foremost of those that rise to the new ideals with spirit and well-directed force. Our own reforms, our own actions in the interest of justice and humanity must be the earnest of our spirit and purpose in the affairs of the world outside our own borders.

"Such is the prospect, such is the programme, my fellow-citizens, to which we look forward, to which it is our purpose to move forward with enthusiasm and irresistible ardor. We will not pause in the midst of our task. We know that we stand at one of the most critical junctures in the history of the world, when all hopes hang in the balance. We will suffer no man, no body of men, through timidity or fear or jealousy, to delay or hinder or embarrass us. Reaction can have no place of tolerance amongst us when all the world waits upon those who plan justice and progress. I summon you, not only to sustain, but to swell the hosts that have their faces now set towards the light, their eyes lifted to the horizons where the dawn of a new age begins to brighten; and I summon you with confidence, with a certain expectation of the part America and her great people are to play when the dawn broadens into day."

Lecture Is Enjoyed

Standing room only could be had at the high school auditorium Friday evening when the second number of the high school lecture course was given by Prof. James A. Burns, president of Oneida Institute, Oneida, Ky. Royal Martin introduced the speaker in the absence of Prof. Clark Fullerton. At the close of the lecture all agreed that "Burns of the Mountains," the title applied to Prof. Burns, had been rightly placed. The speaker at the beginning gave a short history of the mountainous regions of Kentucky and Tennessee. His entire talk was the story of his struggle in the mountains and how he had finally won. He brought and end to the Baker Howard feud with a meeting called for the founding of a school. He cut and laid the cornerstone of the first school back in the mountains where today is Oneida Institute. He is now helping to save his own people from degeneracy and feuds. His personality combined with his delivery and earnestness made the story of the Kentucky mountaineers exceedingly instructive and interesting. The third number on the lecture course "The Chimes of Normandy" will be given on Wednesday Nov. 8.

"FLESH AND BLOOD ARGUMENTS"

We produce herewith an editorial from the New York World. We think it sizes up the presidential election situation in a nutshell:

"The Republicans accuse President Wilson of having timidly sacrificed the national honor in our submarine controversy with Germany, and yet Richard Olney, who personifies one of the most aggressive foreign policies that the United States ever took, comes out in support of Mr. Wilson, indorsing the methods and results of his German diplomacy."

"The Republicans accuse President Wilson of having ignominiously surrendered to labor in urging the passage of the 'sham' eight-hour law, and yet Henry Ford, a life-long Republican, one of the greatest manufacturers and experts in the employment of labor in the country, comes out in support of Mr. Wilson, indorsing this eight-hour law."

"The Republicans accuse President Wilson of having oppressed capital and of being responsible for conditions which will replace the present 'artificial' war prosperity with the suffering of unemployment and hard times, and yet two great railroad presidents—Lovett of the Union Pacific and Underwood of the Erie, the latter a lifelong Republican—come out in support of Mr. Wilson, indorsing the results which his legislation has achieved in producing lasting prosperity."

"The Republicans accuse President Wilson of having prostituted the public service for partisan ends, and yet such a great civil-service reformer as President Eliot, an independent Republican, comes out in support of Mr. Wilson, indorsing his administration."

"The Republicans accuse President Wilson of lukewarmness toward preparedness, and yet such a zealous advocate of preparedness as Thomas Edison, a life-long Republican, who championed the nomination of Roosevelt on the preparedness issue, comes out in support of Mr. Wilson and indorses his preparedness record."

"On the other hand, the Democrats accuse Mr. Hughes of being double-faced on the international issue, and such a pro-ally as Robert Bacon and such a pro-German as Jeremiah O'Leary come out in support of Mr. Hughes, the one indorsing his pro-ally sentiments, the other indorsing his pro-German sympathies."

"The Democrats accuse Mr. Hughes of being double-faced on domestic issues, and such a reactionary as Boies Penrose and such a Progressive as Oscar Straus come out in support of Mr. Hughes, the one indorsing his conservatism, the other indorsing his progressiveism."

"The Democrats accuse Mr. Hughes of being double-faced on the suffrage question, and, after private interviews with him, the National American Woman Suffrage association and the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage come out in support of Mr. Hughes, the one indorsing his pro-suffrage principles, the other indorsing his anti-suffrage convictions."

All Souls Day

All Souls Day, by order of Rt. Rev. Bishop Hartley, will be observed by Catholics throughout Columbus Diocese Sunday, October 29.

The members of Holy Redeemer parish will pay loving tribute to the dead tomorrow afternoon, when the school children of the parish together with adults, will form in procession and march from church to cemetery at 2:30, where appropriate religious exercises will be held.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will take place at 2 o'clock, after which the procession will take place. During the procession to cemetery the church chiming will render appropriate hymns.

The Forty Hours Adoration services will take place at Holy Redeemer church beginning on Sunday, November 12 and close on Tuesday, November 14.

Rev. Father Bernard, an eloquent speaker of the Passionist order, will assist the pastor. Several other visiting priests will take part in the services.

St. Joseph's Council of Catholic Foresters will receive holy communion in a body at the opening exercises of the forty hours devotion, Sunday, November 12.

The Young Ladies Sodality will hereafter receive holy communion on the first Sunday of each month. J. E. McGUIRK.

U. C. T.'s To Meet

Portsmouth Council No. 11, United Commercial Travelers will hold an important meeting this evening beginning at 7 o'clock. Ritualistic work will be conferred.

Back To Old Name.

It was learned Saturday that a movement has been started by members of Peerless Camp Spanish-American War Veterans to change the name of the camp back to the General Jacob H. Smith Camp of Spanish American War Veterans.

Cost Buyers Here.

Going Home From East.

William B. Altman, who has been in New York, Boston and Philadelphia buying leather for the Selby Shoe Co., is expected home tonight.

THEATRICAL

Due to the establishment by enterprising and conscientious managers of permanent stock companies in the various cities throughout the country, the dweller in the smaller city enjoys the plays seen in the larger city and pays much less for the privilege. The plays presented by the best permanent stock companies are seldom over one season old, except such as Sherlock Holmes, which was revived only last season, and which never grows old. The stock actors are no longer regarded as inferior to those playing a season in one play, stock playing has become as much of a specialty in the dramatic profession as any particular branch of the medical or legal profession, which the student elects upon his entrance into the profession.

"The Only Son," a very strong drama by Winchell Smith, author of the Fortune Hunter, will have its first presentation tonight. This play has made a big hit with patrons of the Sun, and The Broadway Players appear at their best in this comedy drama. See it tonight. The first half of next week, "A Pair of Socks" is underlined.

Bigelow Service

Sunday school and Bible classes at 9 a. m.

All members are urged to be present to greet our new superintendent, Mr. Orson Cair.

At the morning church service Dr. Chandler will deliver the second sermon of his series on Conquering One's Temptations and Antagonisms, his subject being "The Coat of Mail." "Put on the complete armor of God so that you may be able to stand your ground in the day of battle, and having fought to the end, remain victors on the field."

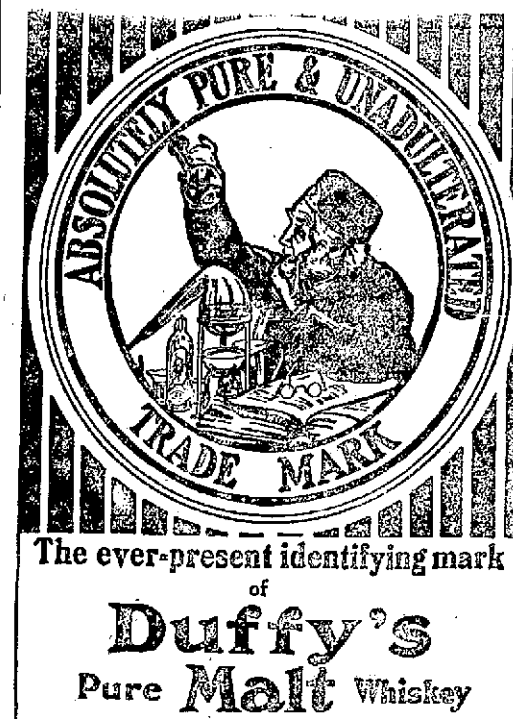

Subject for the evening service, "The Parable of the Vacuum." This is the second sermon of a series which Dr. Chandler is delivering on the teachings of Miracles.

The following special musical selections will be rendered during the day:

In the morning a special anthem by the choir and solo by Mr. Goddard. In the evening an anthem by the choir and a solo by Miss Staiger. Strangers or visitors in the city, who have not a church home, are most cordially invited to attend services at Bigelow.

THE PEOPLE'S COURT

The county office that comes nearest to the people is that of probate judge. Through it ultimately pass all the property interests. The estate of every individual, who dies must be administered through it. This means the court has oversight of the interests of the widowed, fatherless and orphaned. Whether their inheritances shall be wasted, and lost or preserved and promoted rests most largely with the prudence and wisdom of him who presides over the court. If he has prudence he will carefully and closely watch over the administrator of the estate and if he have good judgment he will see will be able to direct and control so that there will be no dissipation, but safe management and accumulation, if the latter be at all possible.

Naturally then this office ought to be a matter of the most serious concern, that is the character of the man chosen to fill it should be. When it comes to voting for him there should be any responsible saying I guess he will do, but a firm and sincere conviction to choose the best among all those offering. This purpose and this end is reflected in the law, which removes this particular office, in so far as it can do so, by placing the candidates therefore on a separate and distinct ticket from that set aside for the use of the political parties. Taking what seems to be the overwhelming measure of the community there is no doubt that Stanley McCall is the best qualified of the several aspirants to the place. Though quite a young man he has earned a distinct place as a talented lawyer. In the position of city attorney, though he had many vexing questions to deal with he acquitted himself with great credit, being intelligent, correct and prompt in all his duties. It would not be, therefore, as an unknown quantity and quality, that he would go to preside as probate judge. His proper equipment therefore in learning and experience is demonstrated. Careful in his speech, wanting to know before he does, honest in intent are his other qualities and those demanded particularly by the position.

WILL GET CONSIDERATION

The Portsmouth Solvay company, which is erecting a three million dollar plant adjoining New Boston, wants to acquire land belonging to the city, contiguous to its site. It was stated before council that if the company acquired the city property it would enlarge its plant by a million dollar more investment in coke evidence.

As we understand it, however, this statement is not directly made as the pledge of what the company will do in the event of acquisition, at least not to the extent of making it a condition of sale. But be that as it may, the company can safely count on the fact that there will be found nowhere a disposition to hamper its development. In view, though, of charges and recriminations about other dealings which affected the city, with which council was regaled on the very evening that this particular proposition came before it, it behooves it to see that in any deal that may be made the interests of public, present and future, be entirely and enforceably safeguarded. It was indicated that future operations of the water system might be seriously affected by a transfer of the city holding to private ownership and this is a matter that ought to be seriously and thoroughly inquired into. Portsmouth is an industrial city, it can not afford to arbitrarily hamper the growth of any enterprise; but Portsmouth is also a big city, its interests, the rights and welfare of its citizens are important and it should proceed cautiously in any matter regarding them, being mindful of how valuable concessions are becoming.

Approaching each other in the right spirit there need be no fear that the company and the city can get together on terms just and proper to both.

JUST A PLAIN MAWSH

The National Voters' League says Congressman Charlie Kearns is a "mawsh." Yes, that sounds like something dreadful and it is, only worse. To make it altogether clear let us explain that the National Voters' League is a non-partisan organization that keeps tab on the records made by the statesmen that assemble at Washington from season to season. It has coined for its own use the word "mawsh," though it is destined to take its place as first class sample of American English. It is formed by taking the first letter of each word in the sentence, he might as well stay home. So the league has applied it to Charlie, not because he had a habit of running off home every time a crisis vote like that on the Adamson eight hour law came up, but because it does not approve his record as congressman in general. So it calls him "mawsh," just plain "mawsh" and nothing else. Other congressmen it, with a fine display of non-partisanship, calls "mawshes" too, but it qualifies and distinguishes. As it says of General Sherwood, Democrat, "a mawsh, shows independence, principally pensions; Professor Fess, Republican, "a mawsh, machine."

With some exactness the expenditures for Portsmouth's new station—to be built next year, sure—are to be $637,000. That is speaking generally for there are to be two passenger stations. The one on Galia will be a right snug affair and will represent an investment of $25,000.

We can guarantee that those who go to hear Charles Towne will hear a speech worth hearing by one of the best orators in the country.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.
 O-O-MEINTYRE.

New York, Oct. 28.—When I was a boy I was pigeon-toed, and then I began to follow the bricks of the pavement in my home town and my feet flared out, and there are those who say that I am now "Pie-footed." A man who is "pie-footed" can never become a graceful fox-trotter, but I have tried, and angels could do no more.

The other night in the Cafe Moderne of the Majestic I saw a little young woman who danced like Old Man Terpsichore's wife—if he was married. I don't know. And I asked the hostess, Miss Evelyn Hubble, if the lady would dance with me.

"I do not know," she said. "But I'll ask. I represent her in America."

"Who is she that she needs representation?" I asked. "She looks to me like she could represent herself ably."

Miss Hubble coughed apologetically behind her hand and tried to make it easy for me, but finally said: "Why that is Mrs. Vernon Castle."

"Oh," I said, "is that all she is?"

"And I went right away from there so quickly that I almost forgot my hat. And this is to let Mrs. Castle know that I was the rude young man, but she ought to be grateful, for it saved her buying a new pair of shoes. Poor Vernon is a soldier now and he doesn't make the money that he did when he was nimbly skipping about the stage in a sport shirt and flannel trousers."

An incompetent actress who knew a girl who knew a man who knew Florence La Badie, the movie star, had been annoying everybody at the Thanhouser studios trying to get a job. All she got was advice to return home to her rich husband and forget her movie ambitions.

Finally she managed to steal into Miss La Badie's dressing room and started to appeal for work.

"I've dived off a ship; I've ridden a horse off a cliff," she began; "I've rolled down a flight of stairs, I've ridden a motorcycle into a lake. I've been dragged from a rope behind a runaway horse."

"You must be tired," said Flo. "My maid will take you out in the hall and give you a place to sit down."

A man appeared on Broadway the other day wearing a robin's egg blue derby. Outside of a runaway there were no casualties. Another man I saw on Fifth avenue had a pearl white derby and he had a monocle in his eye.

I followed him for six blocks waiting for it to drop—but it didn't. It was much like the nervous man waiting for the other shoe to fall.

Franklin P. Adams, who conducts the Counting Tower in the Tribune, reported in big type in his column that Samuel Merwin would write one story of the world series for him. The stunt was advertised for days ahead and naturally there was great expectancy.

The day dawned auspiciously. The Tribune readers turned anxiously to the Counting Tower. This is what Merwin wrote: "The Boston Red Sox defeated the Brooklyn Robins at Ebbets Field yesterday afternoon."

A new room has been opened at the Igit called The Oval Room. It has oval tables, oval dishes and even some of the waiters have oval heads. Everything is running to rounds of this name and that name in hotels. No one seems to know where it will stop—and incidentally, few care.

A man lost a diamond studded cigarette case near Times Square the other day. A newsboy found it and returned it to the owner. The man gave him a long talk on honesty and a dime. "Thanks," said the boy. "My mother thanks you and my father."

Is Charlie Kearns coming back to a big town, where the furnaces glow and the smoke stacks smelt? If he is we want to know and right away. It is important, because if he is coming back we want to run over and warn the council committee that it must hustle up and close the deal for that city strip upon which the Solvay company wants to place a million dollars worth of ovens, before Charlie can get here and shut down the steel mills again.

thanks you. But I cannot take your money. You think more of money than I ever will.

Luck

A little bit of effort, a little bit of thought,
 A little bit of daring and of pluck,
 A little bit of courage in the fight that's being fought,
 All this is often looked upon as luck.

A little bit of vision, and of faith a little, too,
 A bit of stern resistance when you're struck,
 A little bit of purpose in the work you have to do,
 All this is in the masonry of luck.

A little bit of wisdom, and the magic of a smile,
 Some real determination when you're stuck,
 The grit to keep on going till you make another mile,
 Are catalogued and labeled under luck.

The wish to travel pathways that were never trod before,
 To hold the lines against the foes that bunk,
 To keep the spirit beating when the flesh is weak and sore,
 All this is in the parentage of luck.

To do the right when wrong would seem to fill your purse with gold,
 To cling to truth, nor fear the devil's truck,
 To play your part unselfishly, be ever brave and bold,
 Herein you find the mystery of luck.

EAT IT! ENJOY IT! NO INDIGESTION OR BAD STOMACH
 Never any sour, gassy or acid stomach, heartburn or dyspepsia
 "Pape's Diapiesin" makes weak stomachs strong and healthy at once

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of indigestion, acidity or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapiesin occasionally.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes belching, dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, nausea, indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), biliousness, heartburn, water brash, pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapiesin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. A single dose will digest all the food you eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour and upset the stomach.

Get a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from your druggist and start taking now, and in a little while you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

Should you at this moment be suffering from indigestion or any stomach disorder, you can get relief within five minutes.

POLITICS

DENOUNCES STATEMENTS
 Jackson, Oct. 28.—Former Governor Myron T. Herrick, Republican candidate for United States senator, at Jackson Friday, denounced Democratic statements, that the Republican party would repeal the Federal Reserve Act, as silly. He asserted some amendments should be made to make the act more workable, and declared these should be made by the real creators of the measure, the Republican party. Answering other statements in which the Democrats sought to convey the impression that Republicans would repeal the Farm Bank Act and the Postal Savings Bank system, Mr. Herrick declared the former should be recast and made effective legislation in favor of the farmer instead of a law copied from the European law intended for helpless and indigent farmers. "The Federal Reserve Act is the result of twenty years' work by the American Bankers' Association, whose campaign of education resulted in changing an inelastic bond secured currency to an elastic commercial paper secured currency," said Mr. Herrick. Mr. Herrick told his audiences that the rural credit movement was started before the fast administration and accused the Democrats of using it for political purposes and passing the present act without mature consideration.

CLIMES OFF THE FENCE
 Chicago, Oct. 28.—Willard F. Hotchkiss, Dean of the Northwestern University School of Commerce, a lifelong Republican, who was supervisor of the Census in the Chicago District under President Taft, in a public statement said: "I climbed down off the fence about two weeks ago. I am for Wilson."

"I did not believe that the Democratic party in 1912 was thinking in national terms. But now we have the evidence. Whatever its history, whatever it may do in the future, however much it may employ Jeffersonian phraseology—here and now, under the leadership of Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic party is the party which at least has borne the fruits of national policy, a policy for advancing the welfare of all the people."

STUDENTS FAVOR WILSON

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—Another university was added today to the long list of those in which President Wilson has defeated Hughes in pre-election polls. The students of Georgetown University Law School voted: Wilson 335, Hughes 231.

MINER FOR WILSON

New York, Oct. 28.—John R. Lawson, the Colorado coal miner, who has grown to be one of the most loved and respected leaders of labor, and who came into national prominence during the Colorado strike, telegraphed today from Denver his reasons for supporting President Wilson for reelection. Said Mr. Lawson: "I am for Woodrow Wilson because I believe him to be the first president since Abraham Lincoln who has been in fact, as well as in name, the president of all the people of the United States."

SPEAKING DATES

Local German's View Of European War

(Written by Louis F. Korth, former Editor of The Correspondent.)

Friday, October 27, 1916.

The battle on the Somme continues with unabated violence in Prince Rupprecht's report. Preceded by the usual terrific drum-fire the British attacked in masses again on the first days of the week between the Ancre and Guedecourt on both sides of the Albert-Bapaume road, the French with less troops south of the river, both without appreciable result.

Berlin says "The defeat and loss of the British were so severe that the dead were piled up in rows all along our front." London claims the capture of another thousand yards of trenches. South of the Somme the Germans recovered a number of trenches between Biaches and La Maisonnette, which they had lost.

On Tuesday the German crown prince reported "The enemy attempts to support his offensive on the Somme with heavy attacks at Verdun. Several of our positions on the right bank of the Meuse have been heavily shelled." The shelling was the usual prelude to an attack, this time a general one in masses, from the Meuse along the Froide ridge to Douaumont and Damblain on the edge of the Woivre. The French war office says of it: "We took the outer defenses of the Fort Douaumont-Vaux line, while Fort Vaux itself remained in German hands. The French line now extends beyond it on the north of Vaux and the Fumin Woods and south of the Damblain battery and the Chemiois woods.

This official matter of fact statement is supplemented by the usual Paris and London victory hymns. "News of the success has caused tremendous public enthusiasm here, etc.," we read. We do not begrudge the poor Ploupin in the trenches, who is brave enough, in comfort of a little good news in his gloom over the disaster, which has befallen his fellow fighters in the east, only think that the street crows a little too loud over an achievement which, although an indisputable local success, is insignificant compared with what the Germans are doing in Dobruja and Transylvania.

The Berlin war office said on Wednesday: "An attack made by the French at Verdun yesterday gained ground for them. Attacks on the Somme were without success." And on Thursday: "Fort Douaumont was evacuated by the German garrison prior to its capture by the French when in flames. Further French attacks north of Fort Douaumont and against Fort Vaux were repulsed."

Fort Douaumont, the most northern one of the Verdun defense works, was built to guard against attack from that direction, not from the south. It was of no use to the Germans after they had advanced beyond it last spring, and being in ruins from bombardment it was not rebuilt, therefore easy to take. The Germans had no reason to sacrifice life in defending it. Fort Vaux, which is further within the French lines, only a jump to Fort Souville, they yet hold.

It is not to be disputed that General Nivelle, who planned the drive after convincing himself that the Germans had withdrawn forces, either to the Somme or the east, and finding the weak spot, has gained ground, the French say four, the Germans two miles, but he has not broken or shattered the German lines, rolled them up and thrown them upon Briet and Metz, he only forced them back. And what are four miles to the 3,000 which the Germans hold in France and Belgium?

They are now on the defensive in the west but very much on the offensive again in the east, where the war will be decided. They do not intend or expect to keep either France or Belgium forever, only as peace-pawns, but they strive to keep the road to Constantinople, the main object of today's fighting, and finish with the Russians and Rumanians, because that will end the war, set Poland free and make it a buffer state between civilized Europe and half-Asiatic Russia, liberate Austria and Turkey and give them German Karl and as compensation for their enormous sacrifices.

After breaking and forcing back the left wing of the Russo-Rumanian army in Dobruja, General Mackensen bombarded and stormed Constantza, the principal Rumanian seaport and the eastern terminal of the only railroad between river and sea. With the loss of this port (the old Turkish Kus tendje) the Rumanian army is deprived of its main supply basis, it is the only one where the big Russian transports could land, the harbors of Galatz and Ibrail in the Danube delta being too shallow for them.

The Rumanians claim that they saved most of their war material in the fortress but there were hundred thousands of tons of wheat and enormous quantities of petroleum for export to Russia stored in the magazines which fell into the hands of the victors.

Besides Constantza they captured Tuzla and Toprai on the coast and the important towns of Ruseva in the Danube valley, on which the Rumanian right rested, Mejidie, a central road junction, and Tehernavada, where the railroad crosses the river into Old Rumania on a big massive bridge, said to be the longest in Europe.

General Mackensen started his new drive along the whole front after bringing up more heavy artillery and munitions. He occupied Tuzla on the Black Sea to secure his right flank against Russian attack, at the same time breaking the enemy's left and throwing it upon the center, which isolated the right and necessitated a retreat of the whole line and abandonment of the railroad and the entire rolling stock.

According to Petersburg the Russo-Rumanians have retreated into North Dobruja and the woods, behind the river swamps and coast lagoons, where they have a narrower front to defend, but German advisers are that their forces were split, the disrupted left wing fleeing north and the right with part of the center over the bridge into Old Rumania, blowing it up behind them. By late Berlin dates Bulgarian cavalry is close upon the Rumanians' heels and has reached the Tassul river, 40 miles north of Constantza, and Tzara Murad on the road to Babadagh in North Dobruja.

The situation on their western frontier in Transylvania is no better for the Rumanians than in Dobruja. In Moldavia, near the Bukovina border, General Arz is reported to have reached the Bistritza at Brosceni and the Illovids, which forced the Gyimes pass, are fighting on the Trots. The passes leading direct to Bucharest are in Falkenhayn's hands. He has taken Predal on the road from Kronstadt to the Rumanian capital after a bloody battle. It is only some fifty miles north of Bucharest. The Cainen defile south of the Thuram pass and the hotchen defile south of the Vulcan pass have also been cleared. From these two passes parallel roads run into the Rumanian interior and connect with Bucharest and Krajova.

The victories of Mackensen and Falkenhayn do not only affect Rumania but the whole Balkan situation. The Russo-Rumanians had planned to drive through Bulgaria and cut the Belgrade-Constantinople railroad east of Sofia, thus isolating Bulgaria and Turkey from Austria and Germany and force them to lay down, but Mackensen has turned the tables on them.

The new offensive of the Austro-Germans against Brussiloff has not lost in vigor, neither on the Leopold's nor on Archduke Friedrich Karl's front. By throwing the Russians over the Stockholms north of Kiselin (Volyhynia) Linsegen has put the wide swamps on both sides of the river between himself and the enemy to which the Russians have held over since he started his counter drive from Kovel last summer. Now they have had to change quarters from the left to the right bank of the river and Linsingen has the advantage of ground.

The same has happened on the Narajuvka, south of Lemberg on Bothmers line, where General Gerok drove the Russians across the river and cleared the entire west bank of them.

He thereby secured the river crossings to the big road leading to Podhajce and the Stripa in the Russian flank.

The military expert of the Overseas Agency says the battle on the Narajuvka, the second one within two weeks, for the capture of Lemberg, lasted seven days. The Russians attacked but were repulsed by Pomeranian and Brandenburg regiments, whereupon the latter attacked the heights on which the Russians had fortified themselves and drove them off. The Russians made a counter attack, were defeated again and the Germans now stormed the bridgehead and drove them across the river. The battle field was covered with dead Russians. The 41st Russian division was routed and the third Finland division almost annihilated. It was a great victory for the Germans, who captured over 5,000 prisoners, 18 guns and a great many machine guns.

In the Dorna Watra region (South Carpathians) the Austrians have driven the Russians from the Bistritza heights.

On the Saloniki (Macedonian) front, the allies appear to be using up what was left of the Serbians in attempts to open the road to Monastir and turn the Bulgarian right flank. The Serbs got to the Cerna bend, but not beyond it. The last we heard from them was that they captured several trenches. And that was from Paris. On the Struma river floods interfere with operations. From the Vardar there is nothing new. Italian cavalry from southern Albania has formed a junction with cavalry on the Macedonian front.

There has been little fighting on the Isonzo since General Cadorna's last failure, but in the Pasubio Alps of Trentino an Italian infantry brigade, supported by Alpini, attacked the positions of the Tyrolean Kaiserjäger. They were repulsed with the loss of their machine guns. The Tyroleans took 1530 prisoners among them the Alpine commander.

The murder of the Austrian Prime Minister, Count Stuergh, while at dinner in a Vienna hotel with friends by an anarchist named Dr. Adler is construed in the allies' capitals as a political coup, but there is no proof for it. The murderer as well as his father are Socialists, the first an ultra radical, the other, who severely condemned the crime of his son, a moderate one.

The Austro-Hungarian Socialists are the most bitter enemies of autocratic Russia and like their German party friends supporters of the government in the war. This speaks against the theory that Adler was the agent of a Socialist revolutionary conspiracy. It has already been ascertained that he had no plot confederates.

He is a crank who acted on his own responsibility. Although he edited a Socialist paper "Der Kampf," the leading Socialists held no communion with him. At a late meeting his revolutionary program was voted down.

"Count Stuergh was of a retiring disposition and not an active politician. His death will not affect Austrian politics. To say that he was responsible for the non-assembly of the Reichsrath is absurd, only the delegation have the constitutional right to convene parliament," Vienna says.

German submarine activity is increasing from day to day, especially in the Mediterranean, where within the last ten days three big British transports, Franconia, Schekel and Crosshill were sunk. Lloyds give a list of eighteen big British ships sunk by submarines within the last ten days, among them the 4,000 ton steamer Sidmouth.

The British admiralty reports the loss of the mine-sweeper Genisa with almost the entire crew. Berlin claims that in September 141 hostile and 39 neutral ships with contraband were sunk, in all about 254,000 tonnage.

Air fighting has got to be an important feature of the doings on the Somme. According to Berlin 500 raids were made by German flyers on the French lines on one single day this month and 200 aerial combats took place, in which sixteen French flyers were brought down.

The International Agricultural Institute in Rome reports to the United States Department of Agriculture that Russia, Rumania, Italy and Egypt have had crop failures. Bulgaria has had a good harvest and Austria a fair one. Germany has had better crops than last year with the exception of potatoes, in consequence of which the peeling of them has been forbidden except in hotels.

The new Vlamish University, instituted by the Germans, has been opened in Ghent, the old Flandric capital, by Governor Bissing. The rector declared at the ceremony that after a century's struggle it could again pride itself upon its Teutonic nationality (Vlamish instead of French) and follow the ideals of the great Vlamish masters.

Portugal is forming two new divisions for home service. Until that is done she can't send any troops to France. The people are against war and labor disturbances are of daily occurrence. This is what the Madrid correspondent of the Cologne Gazette reports.

The little German cruiser Muenchen was torpedoed by a British submarine in the North Sea but limped into a home port without serious damage.

Metz and Rombach were bombarded by French flyers. Paris speaks of hits, Berlin says, "No damage."

Italy has been obliged to call out her boy scouts for war service. It's the cradle and the grave.

The Cunarders now carry four inch guns astern. The first one to arrive with such armament in New York harbor was the Laconia.

The French have seized a mile of territory adjoining their concession in Tientsin, China. The Chinese police were arrested and Frenchmen substituted. Peking has protested. It says the action is actual warfare. It will find no more hearing than Greece did. It's all might, not right nowadays.

Dr. E. E. Pratt, chief of the U. S. Bureau of Commerce, predicts a very large demand for agricultural machinery of all kinds immediately after the close of the war.

The British government is suddenly in need of leather. It has given notice that it will take possession of all hides imported into the United Kingdom.

According to the Russian Central Identification office at Kiev, there have been 1,797,522 casualties in the Russian army since May—85,981 officers, of which Russia is more in need than of men, have been killed or disabled. Russia has the horses but its best fighting material is under the ground.

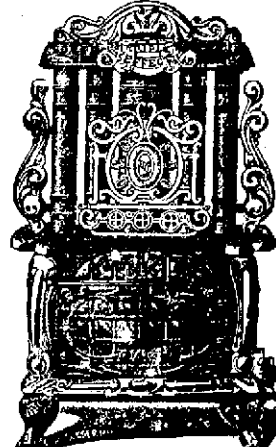

A bitter campaign has just ended in Australia over the conscription question, which will be decided tomorrow at the polls.

Excavating For Pumping Station
The S. Monroe & Son Company continues to make rapid headway with the new flood wall job. It now has the wall poured up as far as Whelching and Offshore streets, with the exception of the different openings left for hauling material through. Work has also been started on excavating for the foundation of the flood pumping station opposite the Veneer works.

With a large crowd to cheer, foot and roll the Ivory Knobs, champions of the Masonic Bowling League, took two out of three from the runners up, Cement Specialists, at the Play House alleys Friday night, due not so much to the skill of the champions as the poor work of the Cement Specialists, who missed one glorious chance of getting off to a flying start.
 The Corn Shuckers, who presented a new front, battled bravely against the Rexalls, but were able to roll but one out of three games. The way the Shuckers lined up last night it looks as though they had corralled a pretty fair bunch of pin lumberers. Their anchor man, Kenyon Johnson, delivered the goods in fine shape, bowling consistently at all stages. Captain W. W.
 Briggs declares that he has visions of

F. B. WINTER,
 River Observer

The Ohio river was 7.8 ft. and slowly rising here Saturday morning.
 The heavy fog which prevailed Friday night has again disarranged the schedule of packets. The steamer Courier, which sprang a leak and had to rush ashore near Ripley to avoid sinking Friday morning, was due to reach Portsmouth Friday night, but the fog forced her to the bank somewhere this side of Buena Vista and she had not yet arrived here at 8 o'clock Saturday morning.

The packet Mildred Runyon, which has been undergoing repairs at the local dock, will not be able to resume her place in the Portsmouth-Rome trade until some time next week. It had been hoped to start her out again Saturday afternoon.

The tow-boat Charles Brown, which last week sank five barges of coal just below government dam No.
 31, had still more luck down the river, running part of her tow aground at Nine-Mile sand bar.
 She succeeded in getting it about again Thursday and delivered the tow at Cincinnati.

Sounding Voters' Sentiments in 3,000 Communities

We are fortunate in having readers in every State in the Union, and, in fact, in every part of every State, and a few weeks ago, we called upon these friends to act as reporters or special correspondents and tell us how local feeling is running for and against the presidential candidates.

The two questions we asked our readers were: "Which was the most popular candidate in your neighborhood in 1912," and "Which is the most popular in 1916?" In THE LITERARY DIGEST for October 28th, the feature-article gives an analysis of the replies received.

This "straw vote" is unique in that while it does not necessarily register the individual vote of those who responded, it is inclined more to reflect local feeling in the community in which the correspondent resides.

The Head of Every Family

Is paying for a home. If he is living in a rented house, he is paying for his landlord's house, and when he has it paid for, it still belongs to the landlord, and he starts right in paying for it a second time.

When he adopts the ROYAL DEFINITE CONTRACT LOAN plan and has a home paid for, he owns the house and can quit paying or go on saving his money for some other plan to benefit himself and family.

INTEREST RATE IS REASONABLE

Some people say "I would buy a home but I have not enough to pay cash and the interest is so much." They let the interest scare them. The interest rate is six and seventy-six one-hundredths per cent. The renter pays this to his landlord and a profit besides.

SAVE THIS PROFIT FOR YOURSELF

Why, some people are buying houses through the Royal and letting the renter pay for them. They bring the rent to pay the payments on the loan.

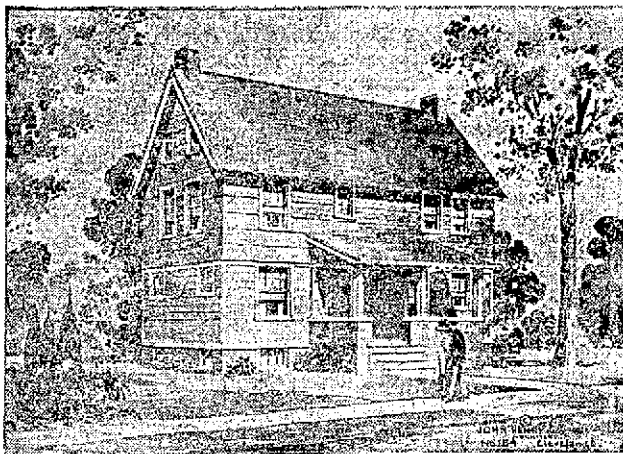

Are you going to keep on buying the landlord's house or are you going to pay for a home of your own.

Come and see us. We will help you get your own home.

"Home of Character" No. 154

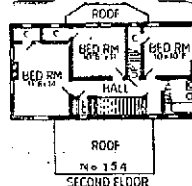

In this exterior is depicted a house of unusually good lines, because of the extreme frontage, and at the same time of sufficient depth to give the house a good body. The first floor has ordinary lap siding up to the top of the first floor windows and the balance of the house is shingled, while shingles would be appropriate for the roof. The foundation is of brick, as also the porch railing walls.

The house is entered through a small hall, from which a stair to the second floor rises and off of which open both the living room and the dining room. A pantry is provided between the dining room and kitchen, and ice room and kitchen porch are arranged off the kitchen. The living room, dining room, main bedroom and upper and lower halls have hardwood floors and finish and the two remaining bedrooms are finished in pine with hardwood floors, while the bath is white enamel. The bath is placed over the kitchen, and between the two rear bedrooms a stairway is arranged to the attic.

Three thousand dollars should build this house 37x18 feet under average conditions. Under favorable conditions it could be built for $2700, but in a large city or under expensive building conditions the cost might run to $3500.

If you are thinking of building let The Times Homes of Character Department help you through advice from John Henry Newson. Address your inquiries to him "Homes of Character" Dept., The Times. Give the numbers of houses concerning which you make inquiry.

The Frost Has Sent The Leaves Tumbling The Days Are Cool--The Nights Chilly--Winter Is Coming!

While some few people like the Winter season, others shudder to think of what it has in store for them!

One thing sure, and that is there will be less daylight than in Summer--the days are short, the nights are long.

Hence the light question should receive due consideration at this time of the year--preparedness is the forword!

From a personal standpoint we want to say that one of the chief questions that should be uppermost in your mind is regarding light--light for the home, light for the office, light for the factory. Solve the problem quickly and correctly by installing electric service.

Electric Service is the finest, the best, safest and most economical--no one can gainsay that, when comfort and convenience are taken into consideration.

Electricity requires no fussing or scratching around--it is always on the job, instantaneous and economical. No "fouling around" to get it ready for action. Electricity is the healthiest light on earth. It does not draw dirt--one big point in its favor. Then there is no flicker--it radiates with uniformity and is as near like sunlight as human ingenuity can devise.

You deserve the best in your home. No home is complete--it is of a truth, sadly deficient in its best and most necessary appointment when it lacks electric service.

If you own a home, you owe it to your good wife to give her what she deserves and desires--electric service, and you are under no less obligation to her if you rent a home.

Yours to serve,

MANY REPUBLICANS PLAN TO ATTEND COLUMBUS RALLY

It is expected that from three to five hundred local Republicans will make the trip on the Hughes special, which will leave Monday afternoon, at 7 o'clock, over the Norfolk and Western railroad for Columbus. The committee, selling round trip tickets for $3 Friday, met with considerable success. Arrangements have been made to have the train stop at Lucasville, Princeton and Waverly. At each point, refreshments have been given that delegations will join the Portsmouth Republicans. Lunch will be served en route. A local caterer will prepare sandwiches for the trip. Unique banners have been prepared and some real stunts have been planned for the Scioto county delegation, while marching in the huge torch-light parade, which will be held at Columbus Monday evening. The special is due to arrive at Columbus at 6:30. Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for president, will arrive at 7. The parade will move promptly at this hour. At 7:30 Mr. Hughes will deliver an address at Memorial Hall, Broad street. It should be borne in mind that to secure the $3.00 rate it will be imperative on your part to get your ticket from a member of the executive committee, or at the headquarters of the Scioto County Republican Club. Your ticket will cost you $1.00 if purchased at the N. & W. depot or N. & W. city ticket office.

Roberts Files Suit Against Malavazos

An action was filed in common pleas court by Robert L. Roberts, local contractor, Friday against Chris Malavazos, proprietor of Malavazos Candy Kitchen, Fifth and Chillicothe streets, for money alleged due upon labor and material furnished to remodel the rooms in the Richardson block. On August 26, 1915, the plaintiff says that he entered into contract with the defendant to furnish the labor and material to remodel certain rooms in the Richardson block. He was then to be paid ten per cent additional for doing the work. He further says for $1,510. Extras, it is alleged, brought this amount to $1,714.63. Upon this total, the defendant paid $750.

Judgment against the defendant for $2,551.38 is asked. Millar and Micklethwait represent the plaintiff.

Charles Smedley Moves Here

The fronton Ironmonger Saturday morning said:

"Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smedley, who have been residing in the Truly cottage at Third and Madison streets, have moved to Portsmouth, where Mr. Smedley has charge of a large grocery store. Mr. Smedley was formerly employed with the N. & W. railroad company.

Meeting At Bertha

An interesting Republican rally was held at the Bertha Post Office school house Friday evening.

Judge A. T. Holcomb discussed the question as to whether President Wilson had kept the United States out of war. Judge George M. Osborn explained the general policies of the Republican party and a short history of the Mexican situation and the conditions that exist today were related by Attorney Aronhold C. Schapiro.

White Man Stabbed By Negro; Arrest Is Made

Louis Evans, white, aged 23, of No. 1311 Union street, was stabbed in the chest near his right lung by a colored man at Eleventh and Fundlay streets early Friday evening. Chas. Jackson, negro, of Thirteenth street, was later arrested and charged with the cutting.

Evans, who until a week ago was employed at the Portsmouth

Paving Brick Company's plant, and Ernest Stout were on their way to the Woodmen of the World meeting. They had an appointment to meet Will Sargent at the above corner at 7 o'clock. While awaiting him they stepped into the Arbogast saloon for a glass of beer, Evans said, and just as they came out a moment later an old man stepped up to him, saying he had something to tell him. The man appeared not wanting to be overheard and led the way across the street towards Simon and Thicken's grocery.

Just then Evans noticed three colored men following him and one of them insisted upon him waiting for him. He told him he first wanted to listen to what the old man had to tell him. He said the negro then began cursing and threatening to shoot him.

Evans said all he said in reply was "All right" and tried to get into the store to telephone for the police but before he could do so he was slashed on the right side of the coat. Evans then ran across the street to enter the saloon and call for police when the negro was upon him again and plunged the knife into his chest, he falling against the glass door of the saloon, breaking the glass.

The knife wielder and his two companions ran to the opposite corner and after halting for a moment disappeared in Paradise Alley. Evans went to Dr. L. D. Alford's office to have his wound dressed.

Jackson was arrested at the Republican meeting place on Gallia street by Officers Flowers and Goodman at 8:43 o'clock. He was not questioned and a charge of cutting with intent to kill was placed against him. The police say that Evans is the third person whom Jackson has cut. The charge was changed to cutting with intent to wound to which Jackson pleaded not guilty in police court Saturday.

The case took on a new turn when Evans recognized an aged man who had just been fined $5 for drunkenness and who had given him the name as Dick Sullivan, of Vanceburg, Ky., as the same who wanted to talk to him just before he got cut. He said that Jackson and his two companions appeared to be following the old man and seemed to resent his talking to the old man, it striking him that the trio were up to something.

Evans also displayed a slight cut on the forehead and one on the hand which were caused by the flying pieces of glass from the door, he said.

Stout corroborated Evans' story and also said he thought he saw a gun in the hands of one of the negroes as they were hurrying away from the scene.

Jackson denied the cutting, saying he never owned a knife and showed a cut himself on his right wrist which he said he received in warding off a blow from Evans. He said both of the white men had knives and had started the trouble. He said he and Arch Tinsley and Harry Johnson were standing on the corner when the two men came out of the saloon and demanded to know why they were hanging around there. He said instead of him following the aged white man it was Evans who was steering him across the street. He said Evans then started after a gun but failing to get one came back and attacked him with a knife. He said he had been working at the steel plant steadily every day for the past three months. Both Evans and Stout denied having been armed. The mayor reserved his decision in the case.

Mrs. John Hermann, of 1306 Young street, was seized with acute indigestion last night and was very ill for several hours.

Campaigns To Close In Spirited Manner

Next week will probably witness the final scenes in the big political campaign which have been waged with considerable enthusiasm by all parties.

County meetings and rallies are to be held each evening. The places and the speakers have not been definitely decided upon.

Thursday evening Hon. Charles A. Towne, well-known corporation lawyer, New York City, and one of the most gifted orators in the United States, who is ranked by many as being second only to Hon. William J. Bryan, will address a big Democratic rally to be held on the Gallia street esplanade.

Should the weather be cold or rainy, the meeting will be held at Distel hall.

Then on Friday evening the Republicans will hold their largest rally of the campaign with United States Senator Warren G. Harding as the principal speaker. On this evening Distel hall, Seventh and Chillicothe streets, will be gaily decorated in honor of the occasion.

The Whitaker-Glessner Steel company employees' Hughes Booster Club are contemplating sending several hundred members to the meeting.

Saturday evening there will be numerous precinct meetings.

Monday of the week following will be the day of impatience, "The Day Before Election."

Tuesday the voters who have registered will go to the polls, then the battle of the ballot will begin and the winner will be announced.

Wednesday will see one of the most warmly contested campaigns closed and practically forgotten.

To Celebrate Anniversary

Portsmouth Court, Tribe of Ben Hur, devoted most of its weekly meeting Friday evening to perfecting plans for celebrating its sixteenth anniversary on November 17. Invitations have been extended to all of the supreme officers of the order and also to the Ashland, Ky., and Huntington, W. Va., courts to attend the celebration. Refreshments and dancing followed the business meeting.

Republican Orators Are To Get Busy Next Week

Republican rallies to be held at various points in the county next week, as announced by D. Willard Gustin, secretary of the Scioto County Republican Executive Committee, Saturday, are as follows:

Tuesday evening, Hon. Harry W. Miller and Hon. E. K. S. Clinkenbeard will address a meeting at Friendship.

Hon. Henry T. Bannon and Judge George Osborn are the speakers at a meeting to be held at Hartman's hall, Wheelersburg.

Wednesday evening, Hon. Mark A. Crawford, Hon. George W. Sheppard and Superintendent of the Greenlaw Cemetery Henry Cline will address a meeting at the Berea school house.

Thursday evening, Hon. Henry T. Bannon and Judge A. T. Holcomb will speak at South Webster.

Saturday evening, Hon. George W. Sheppard and Henry Cline will speak in the Rushtown school house.

IMPROVED CONDITIONS At Kentucky Carlsbad Hotel, Dry Ridge, Ky.

It will prove of interest to all those who have visited the Kentucky Carlsbad Springs to know that the hotel has been thoroughly renovated and is "spick and span" from top to bottom. The improved conditions are favorably commented on immediately upon arrival of those who have visited the Springs in the past.

Our system of baths has been wonderfully improved and, under the personal supervision of our medical director, we are securing the most wonderful results in the treatment of rheumatism, stomach, kidney and bladder trouble.

The general service, including meals, has been improved in keeping with the latest electrical and other appliances for the successful treatment of rheumatism and other troubles of a similar nature.

Those who are unable to come to the Springs can secure the very best of results in stomach, kidney and bladder trouble by the use of the water at home.

Kentucky Carlsbad Water is shipped in cases containing six half gallon bottles of the natural mineral water. In addition to the above we include, in each case, one small bottle of the water fortified to be used, when required to keep the bowels open, and is very valuable in the treatment of liver and intestinal trouble.

To those who use the water at home, according to directions for a period of ten days to two weeks, depending on the trouble for which it is taken, we guarantee that they will be satisfied with the relief secured; otherwise, we will refund all the money paid for the water.

We have just issued a new booklet—write for one.

After The War -- WHAT?

The present prosperity is temporary and is based on the bloodshed and suffering of the war-ridden people of Europe.

Before the war we had nine months of democratic free trade tariff, and during that time there were more mills and factories closed, more men out of employment and more enforced idleness and more want than during any nine months in all our nation's history.

Do not forget that two years ago the shoe factories of this city, the steel plant in New Boston and the railroad terminals were laying men off and running on short hours.

Capital and labor cannot compete with the pitifully small wage of Europe, and when the war is over the millions of men now on the battle fields will enter the workshops and mills and, burdened with debt and poverty, will produce more cheaply than ever before.

The United States must protect itself against an industrial invasion that will bring disaster to the business and working interests of this country.

We need, as never before a protective tariff that will insure a wage equal to the needs and dignity of American labor and provide capital a fair return.

The only agency that can safely accomplish this is the Republican party, and under the wise and vigorous leadership of Charles E. Hughes, America prosperous and efficient will be assured.

HOW TO VOTE

To cast a full vote for his choice for president and vice president, a voter must adopt one of two methods:

First, he may make an "X" in the circle beneath the emblem of the party whose ticket is headed by his choice for president and vice president. Neglecting to so mark his ballot with one "X" in the circle beneath the emblem, the voter, in order to vote for his candidate for president and vice president must then mark an "X" in front of the names of each of the twenty-four candidates for elector, which names follow next after his candidate for president and vice president.

In other words if an elector desires to vote for Woodrow Wilson he may mark an

"X" in the circle under the rooster and thus assure the counting of a full vote for the president. Or failing to so mark his ballot he must place an "X" in the little square before each name of the twenty-four candidates for presidential elector on the Democratic ticket. To place an "X" in front of the name of one elector is to cast but one twenty-fourth of a vote. It is one "X" in the circle or twenty-four "X's" in the squares. There is no square in front of the president's or vice president's name. No "X" can be placed in front of either. If a careless voter attempts to mark his ballot other than as indicated above one "X" in the circle or twenty-four squares, he loses his ballot.

more people than ever before. There will be employed between 300 and 400 people.

DOCTORS ALSO TAKING KINDLY TO NERV-WORTH

Read What Huntington Physician Said of This Wonderful Family Nerve Tonic.

Wherever Nerv-Worth has been introduced it has gained recognition in medical circles as well as in the home. Persons on the inside have been surprised at the number of cases in which Nerv-Worth has been prescribed by physicians whose knowledge of this tonic's power over nervous ill has prompted them to use it for their patients. A pointer to this effect appears in the endorsement printed below. It comes from Dr. N. B. Ferguson, a well known practicing physician of Huntington, W. Va. The following are the doctor's own exact words:

"Nerv-Worth is truly a great remedy. I have tested it professionally in my practice and actually and practically in my family. It gives me pleasure to recommend it to the profession and also to the general public. It in my opinion will prove a great boon to sufferers from the troubles for which it is intended, to be an ameliorative remedy." N. B. FERGUSON.

This great boon is now within easy reach of all the people of Portsmouth and vicinity. The Fisher & Streich Pharmacy is now the mecca for local victims of nervous disorders for here Nerv-Worth is on sale and here Demonstrator Lawyer is ready with his free sample doses to show callers what Nerv-Worth looks and tastes like.

HUGHES vs. WILSON

FOR LABOR

AGAINST LABOR

IT IS TIME TO THINK!

HUGHES

Mr. Hughes' position on labor, taken from Legislative Labor News of October 10, 1910:

GOV. HUGHES, GREATEST FRIEND OF LABOR
The Legislative Labor News, of New York, October 10, 1910, had the following:

"Now that Governor Hughes has retired from politics and ascended to a place on the highest judicial tribunal in the world, the fact can be acknowledged without hurting anybody's political corns, that he was the greatest friend of labor laws that ever occupied the governor's chair at Albany. During his two terms he has signed 56 labor laws, including among them the best labor laws ever enacted in this or any other state. He also urged the enactment of labor laws in his message to the legislature, even going so far as to place the demand for a labor law in one of his messages to an extra session of the legislature.

"Only 182 labor laws have been enacted in this state since its erection in 1777—in 133 years. One-third of these, exceeding in quality all of the others, has been enacted and signed during Governor Hughes' term of three years and nine months.

"With such a record of approval and suggestion of progressive legislation in the interest of humanity to his credit, it is easy to believe that human rights will have a steadfast and sympathetic upholder in the justice of the Supreme Court of the United States."

WILSON

President Wilson's position on labor when an election was not at hand:

AGAINST THE UNION SHOP

President Wilson's Position on Labor, as Reported in Collier's Weekly:

(Extract from a Baccalaureate Sermon of June 13, 1909, by Prof. Woodrow Wilson).

You know what the usual standard of the employee is in our day. It is to give as little as he may for his wages. Labor is standardized by the trade union, and this is the standard to which it is meant to conform. No one is suffered to do more than the average workman can do. In some trades and handicrafts no one is suffered to do more than the least skillful of his fellows can do within the hours allotted to a day's labor, and no one can work out of hours at all or volunteer anything beyond the minimum.

I need not point out how economically disastrous such a regulation of labor is. The labor of America is rapidly becoming unprofitable under its present regulation by those who have determined to reduce it to a minimum. Our economic supremacy may be lost, because the country grows more and more full of unprofitable servants.

Extract from a letter of Woodrow Wilson dated January 12, 1909, in reply to an invitation to speak at a banquet of anti-strike and anti-boycott advocates:

"I am a fierce partisan of the open shop and everything that makes for individual liberty, and I should like to contribute anything that might be possible for me to contribute to the clarification of thinking and the formation of right purposes in matters of this kind."

At a dinner in the Waldorf-Astoria on March 18, 1907, Dr. Woodrow Wilson spoke as follows:

"We speak too exclusively of the capitalistic class. There is another as formidable an enemy to equality and freedom of opportunity as it is, and that is the class formed by the labor organizations and leaders of the country."

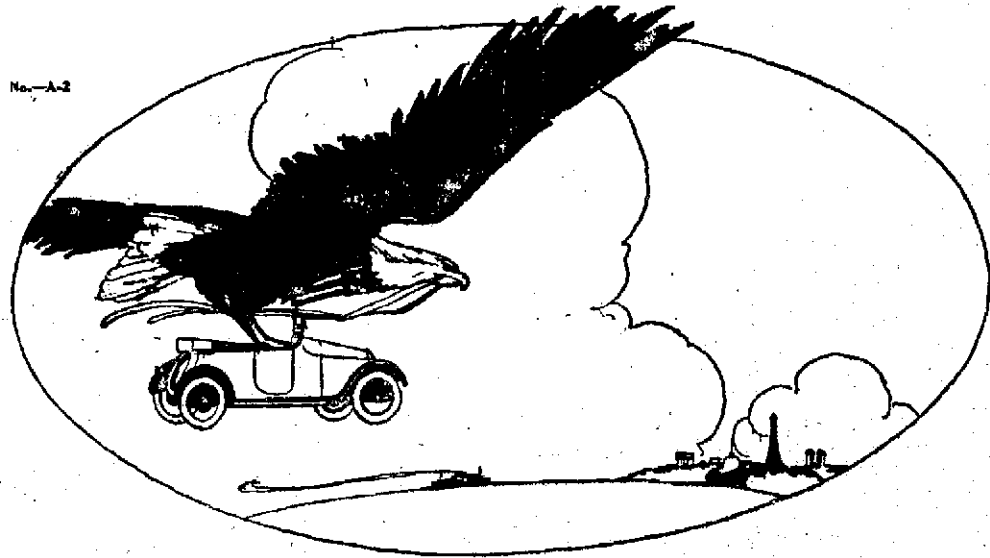

We reprint them here because they have an important bearing on the questions whether the Democratic administration, in what it did during the last week in August, was actuated by sincerity of a life-long conviction.

HIT BY STRAY BULLET

Orville Wilburn, aged 20 years, an employee of the S. Monroe & Son company, received a slight bullet wound while at work on the new flood wall near Wheeling and Offshore streets, late Friday afternoon.

Wilburn was mounted high upon one of the wall buttresses prying loose the wooden concrete forms when a bullet coming from the direction of the foot of

Thompson street, struck him just over the left eye, inflicting a small but painful wound. After he succeeded in stopping the flow of blood Wilburn pluckily continued with his work, later going to his boarding house on Mill street. He was again back to work as usual Saturday morning and had not even visited a physician to have the wound dressed. His home is near Carter City, Ky.

Health Notes

(Issued by the Anti-Tuberculosis League of Scioto County)

Drinking water with meals aids digestion.

In the United States, every three minutes some person dies of tuberculosis; about two every week in Scioto county.

You have your automobile looked over frequently for possible defects; why not give your body the same consideration?

Don't try to be "a strong man"; the champion athlete often dies young. Be a moderate exponent of exercise.

Many backward pupils are backward purely and simply because, through physical defects, they are unable to perform all the work expected of them. Every progressive community is now establishing medical inspection of school children. Why not Portsmouth?

Chronic constipation can often be relieved by exercise, water drinking, eating fruits and a small quantity of bran taken mixed with breakfast food or made into cakes. Darkness, poor ventilation, quack doctors, and patent medicines are the friends of tuberculosis. Sunshine, the open window, and honest doctors are its enemies.

Influenza, or la grippe, as it is commonly called, is an acute contagious disease, and one should avoid persons who are its victims. Pneumonia, heart disease, and our inflammations are some of its complications.

Mrs. X.—There is no positive method by which one may prevent contracting infantile paralysis. However, there are some rules that should be followed when the disease is epidemic. The child's general health should be well looked after, all milk pasteurized, rooms where children must assemble should be kept well ventilated, and the nose and throat sprayed with a mild antiseptic solution several times daily.

Andrew Glass continues to improve steadily from his recent attack of typhoid fever.

Charles A. Cottrill Speaks To The Third Ward Club

A ringing denunciation of the Democratic administration was made in an address before an enthusiastic meeting of the Third Ward Republicans, held last night at the Republican club rooms, Gallia street, by Hon. Charles A. Cottrill, Toledo, who was formerly internal revenue collector at Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands.

Just before the meeting adjourned, Nate B. Gilliland, Republican candidate for probate judge, in a short address, declared that a certain man had been exhibiting a photograph, which portrayed a corner of the probate office, showing some ink spots upon the wall. These ink spots, he said, were the result of some differences which he had with an attorney while engaged in an argument several years ago. This photograph was being exhibited, he said, to prejudice voters against his candidacy and added that he desired to let his friends know what was being done.

Led by the Lewis Brass band and a large delegation of colored Republicans from the Third Ward, Mr. Cottrill was brought to the hall and after a few selections by the band, was introduced by John H. Jackson, chairman. The hall was packed with people.

"I feel," said Chairman Jackson, "that the committee has conferred a great honor upon me by permitting me to preside over this meeting tonight. At this meeting the issues of the nation, state and county are to be presented. It affords me great pleasure to introduce to you, Mr. Charles A. Cottrill."

"Ladies, gentlemen and fellow sufferers," said Mr. Cottrill, "I say fellow sufferers for the reason of the mismanagement of the affairs of the federal government by the present administration. I regard it an exceedingly high compliment to note on this occasion so many of the members of my race."

"The Republican party has never had occasion to apologize for its record and none of its advocates have ever asked an audience to forget the past. We are a party of performance; a party of stability; a party of reliability; a party of progress and a party of safety. Against us on the other side we have a party that is ashamed of the part it took during the '60's; they are apologetic for the part they took in '76 when their followers, lest we forget, brought forth that 'peerless leader,' William J. Bryan, who sought to lead us in the swamp and quicksand of party dissolution."

"President Wilson, who will soon be ex-president, Thursday night in Cincinnati announced before thousands of American people: 'I don't know how to take care of you. You know that only too well. I try to find out what you want and then do it.' The last is an apology and in the remarkable confession of weakness made by a man who seeks to be re-elected for another four years to determining the destiny of one hundred millions of people, he only shows too plainly his character," the speaker said.

Mr. Cottrill assailed Secretary of War Newton D. Baker for letting his tongue slip the other day when he "threw mud and besmirched the beloved memory of the soldiers of the Revolution." President Wilson and Secretary Baker, he said, were now holding a mutual condolence party.

Attention was called to the Democratic platform. One of these pledges indicated in the 1912 platform was that the candidate should serve only one term.

"Woody," he said, "we are going to force you to redeem one clause of your platform in November."

Another platform pledge was the practice of economy in the affairs of the government. This he declared had been broken. The last session of congress appropriated one billion dollars more than any other congress.

"He kept us out of war! What war? With whom were we about to have war with? Huh!" he said. "We are out of war in spite of President Wilson and not because of him. A detailed history of the Mexican trouble was given in which the speaker denounced the president for sending the Tenth United States cavalry into Mexico to be murdered. The Tenth was composed of negroes."

Twenty members of this troop were killed and nineteen were captured. After the incident, the president wrote a note asking the prisoners be released. When they were returned, the speaker declared, they were taken to the international bridge in such a manner that was "a disgrace to the great republic."

Later, one of the members of the president's cabinet, he contended, had said that it did not make any difference "they were only niggers."

"The first blood shed in the Revolutionary war was the blood from the body of a black man. They were with the American troops in 1812. They were with them in 1842. They were with Perry on Lake Erie. And in the defense of the Union, 125,000 fought for the preservation of this great republic."

"If this republic is to last and the liberty of the people continues to be conserved and its institutions made permanent the men of America of all societies must refute this hellish spite."

The president through friends, he declared, had introduced bills to refuse negro enlistments in the United States army and to refuse to allow negroes to become commissioned officers or non-commissioned officers and to muster out the four negro regiments now in service. He said that the negro race had always been interested in the preservation of the welfare of the nation and would continue to be, regardless of action taken by legislature.

He declared that an order of segregation had been issued by the president, prohibiting the white and colored employees of the government to work in the same room. Race prejudices, he said, was all right for an individual but denounced the man who would dare to take it into public office. The president, he said, had removed all of the negro employees in the federal service.

In discussing the Adamson bill, he said that fifty per cent of the trainmen had realized that they had gotten a gold brick and that by the time for the election all of the Republican trainmen would be ready to cast their ballot for Charles E. Hughes.

The present prosperity, he said, was due to the war. As an internal revenue collector at Honolulu, he said he had been in a position to know something about the stricken financial circumstances of the government during 1913 and 1914, before the war orders were received. "After the war what?" he asked.

He declared that the president had carried with him into office "all of the southern race prejudices." Before he was elected, President Wilson called several negroes into consultation at Trenton, N. J. and asked for the colored support. Many were fooled by his promises and voted for him, he said, but "The New Freedom" as advocated and promised was against the American conception of liberty.

Candidates upon the state and district and county tickets were named by the speaker and he said that they should receive the hearty support of the colored race. The negro's only plea, he said, was to be given a man's chance and not offices.

He predicted the election of Charles E. Hughes, the re-election of Governor Frank B. Willis and the election of all the state and county candidates in November.

The speaker through bursts of oratory and humor kept his audience interested for almost two hours. During the address he was given many ovations.

The non-partisan judicial ticket was explained by Nate B. Gilliland in a short talk, who asked the support to the electors for his candidacy.

Over 200 attended the Halloween social given by the M. W. of A. Friday evening. After the regular business session the application of Harry Walker of Manchester, O., was favorably balloted upon. At eight o'clock the hall was opened to the guests, the greater number of whom were masked. All kinds of refreshments were served. One of the main attractions in the large hall was O. L. Slattery who spent the evening in making candy. Gerald Adams and sister, Arlie Adams, of the West Side, rendered a vocal duet. Eva Hunt sang a song, Edwin Lodwick played a solo on the clarinet, Fred Klingman played several selections on a ukulele and sang, Bert Newman played the piano and Howard Mackey rendered several instrumental selections. The degree team had charge of the arrangements and were complimented on the splendid evening's entertainment.

"SYSTEM"

There is, in the English vocabulary, one word that enters into the success of every enterprise, proper development and protection of every undertaking, public or private, that word is "SYSTEM."

The operation of a great railway, transporting, as on the wings of a bird, through their "System" of schedules, great cargoes of precious human freight, gives us a striking example of the necessity of a "System" and the great value of it.

Every enterprise must contribute its success to the strength, or its failure to the weakness, of the "System" employed.

If the "System" you are now using has not resulted in saving it is not productive of results and it is time that you change it.

Systematic "Saving" is the kind that pays. Start this "System" today where the fundamental elements of a profitable and flawless "System" is found at THE OHIO VALLEY BANK.

BOMB ENDANGERS KAISER'S LIFE

FRENCH TAKE TEUTON QUARRY

ENGINEER ON EMPEROR'S TRAIN KILLED

(Bulletin)

Paris, Oct. 28.—A bomb dropped by an aviator of the entente allies has killed the engineer driving the train of Emperor William of Germany, according to information received at Zurich, Switzerland.

Emperor William recently was reported to be at Bapaume, on the Somme front, personally overseeing the preliminaries for a counter-offensive for which the German troops there were said to have received strong reinforcements.

Apparently during this visit he delivered a brief speech to the German troops thanking them for the "heroic manner" in which they had fought for four months.

On Monday last, the Emperor was in Berlin on a brief visit and conferred with the imperial chancellor and visited the palace at Potsdam. His movements since then have not been reported.

DEUTSCHLAND IS EXPECTED IN FEW HOURS

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 28.—The German under-sea merchantman Deutschland, according to report in circulation in Norfolk and Baltimore is due at the Virginia capes in the next few hours, enroute to Baltimore. It is declared she sailed from Bremen two weeks ago and successfully eluded all British patrol boats safely.

It was reported last night that the Deutschland passed in the capes shortly after nightfall and proceeded up the bay, but this could not be confirmed.

FOUR BURNED IN POWDER 'FLARE UP'

Haskell, N. J., Oct. 28.—Three men were probably mortally burned and four others less seriously injured by a powder "flare up" at the Haskell plant of the B. I. Dupont DeNemaur Powder Co. late yesterday. The "flare" was caused by the ignition of a bag of powder which fell under the wheels of a train car and set fire to the load on the car.

BURNING SHIP REPORTED SAFE

London, Oct. 28.—The French line steamer Chicago has arrived at Fayal, Azores, according to Lloyds. The utmost was done to extinguish the fire aboard the steamer.

BANK ROBBERS

Toledo, O., Oct. 28.—The safety in the darkness in the general deposit vault of the State Savings Bank at Maumee was blown by five men at 6 o'clock this morning. Explosion of charges of nitro-glycerine awakened J. M. Hagdon, who lives near the bank. He fired three shots

RUMANIA IN GRIP OF TWO INVADING FORCES

STRUGGLING DESPERATELY TO WARD OFF ATTACKS

London, Oct. 28.—Rumania, caught in the grip of two invading forces of the central powers, is still struggling desperately to ward off the incessant attacks of Field Marshal Von Mackensen and General Von Falkenhayn.

Advancing northward in Dobruja, Van Mackensen's troops have reached a line running from Hirsova, on the Danube, to Caspouka, on the Black Sea Coast, from forty to sixty miles from where they crossed the Constantza-Tchernavoda railroad line. The capture of Hirsova would give the Teutonic allies the advantage of having little marshy ground to traverse should they attempt to make a crossing of the river here into old Rumania, as the low-lying ground virtually disappears for some distance around Hirsova.

Falkenhayn Makes Progress General Von Falkenhayn continues to make progress in the direction of Campulung, south of Predeal, on the Transylvania front, and Bucharest admits a retirement of the Rumanian forces in the Jiu valley, which is situated in the Vulcan pass region. The Russo-Rumanian forces, to the north, have repulsed Austro-German attacks, while in the Usal valley the Rumanians continue to advance and in the region of Okna have occupied a height and a village.

Inclement weather is hampering the operations on the Somme and Macedonian fronts and only bombardments have taken place in these regions. Another attempt by the Germans at an attack west of the village of Daumont in the Verdun region was checked by the French curtain of fire. The Germans are still heavily bombarding all the newly won positions of the French in this region.

Two Destroyers Sunk On the eastern front, in Russia there has been little fighting except in the region of the Shara river northwest of Pinsk. Near Goldovizka German attacks forced the Russians to retire to the eastern bank of the Shara.

Slashes Knee

Nick Kiff, a brother of Mrs. Louis Kern, of Second street, accidentally slashed himself across the knee with a corn knife while cutting corn on the Kern farm on the West Side Thursday.

SHIPS PAY A HEAVY TOLL

London, Oct. 28.—Lloyds Shipping Agency announces that the steamer Rowanmore, 10,320 tons has been sunk. Lloyds also announced the sinking of the steamer Skog.

The Norwegian steamer Bygdo has been sunk off Christiania, Norway, to London with a cargo of boards, has been taken to Cuxhaven.

DR. VON KOERBER PREMIER TO TAKE STUERCKH'S SEAT

London, Oct. 28.—The Vienna Evening Newspapers announce that Dr. Von Koerber, former Austrian prime minister, has been appointed premier in succession to Count Karl Stuerckh, says a Renter dispatch from Amsterdam. He has undertaken the formation of a new cabinet.

Count Karl Stuerckh, the late Austrian premier was assassinated while dining in a Vienna hotel on October 21 by Frederick Adler, a newspaper editor.

Dr. Von Koerber was minister of finance in the Stuerckh cabinet, having been appointed in February, 1915. He retired as Austrian premier in January, 1915. The Austrian cabinet resigned automatically on the death of the premier.

CLAIM GAIN NEAR VERDUN

(Bulletin)

Paris, Oct. 28.—The French forces in the region of Verdun last night captured by the use of hand grenades the quarry held by the Germans to the northeast of Fort Douaumont, it was official.

ly announced by the French war department today. A brisk artillery duel continues in the region of Douaumont. On the Somme front last night the state-ment adds, there was an intermittent artillery bombardment.

TO PROBE MOVEMENT OF NEGRO VOTERS IN KENTUCKY

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 27.—U. S. District Attorney Perry B. Miller announced the Department of Justice at Washington had instructed him to ascertain the names, point of origin and destination of negroes or any other voters from southern states, particularly Alabama and Kentucky, who recently may have passed through Louisville to Northern states.

It was stated investigation had disclosed that a large number of voters had been transported from the south on party tickets to Indiana, Ohio and Michigan. This week, it was announced, four cars of negroes were sent north through Memphis, Tennessee and Louisville while large numbers, it was declared, recently have been transported from Alabama to Eastern Kentucky.

The department, it was announced, will endeavor to learn whether the exodus was due to attractive wage offers or to other influences.

ELECTED OFFICERS

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 28.—The American Public Health Association convention closed here today with the election of the following officers: President, Dr. Wm. A. Evans, Chicago; secretary, Selakor M. Gunn, Boston; treasurer, Dr. Lee M. Frankel, New York.

Betting On Wilson

A number of good sized wagers were made in political circles Friday that Wilson would carry Ohio.

OBSERVING 'WILSON DAY'

New York, Oct. 28.—With bands playing and banners waving, several thousand Democrats today set out on a pilgrimage to the New Jersey White House to hear a speech by the president. The Democratic National Committee has designated this as "Woodrow Wilson Day", for celebration by Democrats all over the country, but at Shadow Lawn it is officially known as "New York Day."

Several special trains will take the New York Democrats to the president's summer home. Two of them will carry a big delegation from Tammany Hall, one will accommodate representatives of the Bronx Democracy, and a fourth the Brooklyn contingent. The Tammany Braves were led on their march to the railroad station by Grand Sachem John R. Voorheis, who will make a five minute address to the president. Mr. Voorheis is 89 years old. Delegations from neighboring counties also made the journey. The women's bureau of the Democratic National Committee, announces that nearly 1,000 women will hear the candidate deliver his address. After the pilgrims return from Shadow Lawn, upwards of 100 meetings will be held throughout the city. At each of these will be read the address delivered by President Wilson earlier in the day.

RUSSIANS ABANDON 2 HEIGHTS

Petrograd, Oct. 28.—(Via London) — Austro-German forces launched a series of violent attacks against the Russian and Rumanian positions on both banks of the river Bystritsa in heights.

THE PEOPLE'S COURT

The county office that comes nearest to the people is that of probate judge. Through it ultimately pass all the property interests. The estate of every individual, who dies must be administered through it. This means the court has oversight of the interests of the widowed, fatherless and orphaned. Whether their inheritances shall be wasted, and lost or preserved and promoted rests most largely with the prudence and wisdom of him who presides over the court. If he has prudence he will carefully and closely watch over the administrator of the estate and if he have good judgment we will see him be able to direct and control so that there will be no dissipation, but safe management and accumulation, if the latter be at all possible.

Naturally then this office ought to be a matter of the most serious concern, that is the character of the man chosen to fill it should be. When it comes to voting for him there should be any responsible saying I guess he will do, but a firm and sincere conviction to choose the best among all those offering. This purpose and this end is reflected in the law, which removes this particular office, in so far as it can do so, by placing the candidates therefore on a separate and distinct ticket from that set aside for the use of the political parties. Taking what seems to be the overwhelming measure of the community there is no doubt that Stanley McCall is the best qualified of the several aspirants to the place. Though quite a young man he has earned a distinct place as a talented lawyer. In the position of city attorney, though he had many vexing questions to deal with he acquitted himself with great credit, being intelligent, correct and prompt in all his duties. It would not be, therefore, as an unknown quantity and quality, that he would go to preside as probate judge. His proper equipment therefore in learning and experience is demonstrated. Careful in his speech, waiting to know before he does, honest in intent are his other qualities and those demanded particularly by the position.

WILL GET CONSIDERATION

The Portsmouth Solvay company, which is erecting a three million dollar plant adjoining New Boston, wants to acquire land belonging to the city, contiguous to its site. It was stated before council that if the company acquired the city property it would enlarge its plant by a million dollar more investment in coke evidence.

As we understand it, however, this statement is not directly made as the pledge of what the company will do in the event of acquisition, at least not to the extent of making it a condition of sale. But be that as it may be, the company can safely count on the fact that there will be found nowhere a disposition to hamper its development. In view, though, of charges and recommitments about other dealings which affected the city, with which council was regaled on the very evening that this particular proposition came before it, it behooves it to see that in any deal that may be made the interests of public, present and future, be entirely and enforceably safeguarded. It was indicated that future operations of the water system might be seriously affected by a transfer of the city holding to private ownership and this is a matter that ought to be seriously and thoroughly inquired into. Portsmouth is an industrial city, it can not afford to arbitrarily hamper the growth of any enterprise; but Portsmouth is also a big city, its interests, the rights and welfare of its citizens are important and it should proceed cautiously in any matter regarding them, being mindful of how valuable concessions are becoming.

Approaching each other in the right spirit there need be no fear that the company and the city can get together on terms just and proper to both.

Pity us mere males! The war factories are so crowded with orders that all they have to do is to raise prices.

We are simply out of breath watching the activity of the iron and steel trade.

Another calamity. Lumber mill in Louisiana had to shut down. Railroads so overrun they couldn't possibly furnish it with cars to haul its product to market.

Coal is going up—reason there are not enough railroad cars to haul up to demand.

It is not recorded that betting ever won an argument or carried an election.

Many will now look more leniently upon Cincinnati for the magnificent ovation it gave President Wilson.

Still we don't get a clear idea of why and wherefore all this rumpus about Sunset avenue. If it isn't stopped soon there will be so much cloud raised that the Old Sol will neither rise nor set within the vision of the avenue.

Studying the last report of council proceedings we conclude there are sometimes things we are more anxious to let go of than we thought we were to take hold of.

We used to clamor for room to build houses, but if this thing at New Boston keeps up we'll be hunting around for room to erect factories.

THE CALL OF A SUNDAY DINNER

JUST A PLAIN MAWSH

The National Voters' League says Congressman Charlie Kearns is a "mawsh." Yes, that sounds like something dreadful and it is, only worse. To make it altogether clear let us explain that the National Voters' League is a non-partisan organization that keeps tabs on the records made by the statesmen that assemble at Washington from season to season. It has coined for its own use the word "mawsh," though it is destined to take its place as first class sample of American English. It is formed by taking the first letter of each word in the sentence, he might as well stay home. So the league has applied it to Charlie, not because he had a habit of running off home every time a crisis vote like that on the Adamson eight hour law came up, but because it does not approve his record as congressman in general. So it calls him "mawsh," just plain "mawsh" and nothing else. Other congressmen it, with a fine display of non-partisanship, calls "mawshes" too, but it qualifies and distinguishes. As it says of General Sherwood, Democrat, "a mawsh, shows independence, principally pensions; Professor Fess, Republican, "a mawsh, machine."

With some exactness the expenditures for Portsmouth's new station—to be built next year, sure—are to be $637,000. That is speaking generally for there are to be two passenger stations. The one on Gallia will be a right snug affair and will represent an investment of $25,000.

It is an ill wind, to repeat for the thousandth time, that blows no good. Chop Suey has gone up.

We can guarantee that those who go to hear Charles Towne will hear a speech worth hearing by one of the best orators in the country.

Why not call it Wilson weather?

Men and brethren, what do you think of it? Corn sold in St. Louis, Thursday, up to $1.03. Wheat is so high in every market that we'll not quote the figures lest some might not believe.

Is Charlie Kearns coming back to a big town, where the furnaces glow and the smoke stacks smoke? If he is we want to know and right away. It is important, because if he is coming back we want to run over and warn the council committee that it must hustle up and close the deal for that city strip upon which the Solvay company wants to place a million dollars worth of ovens, before Charlie can get here and shut down the steel mills again.

It takes a man, with his slower mental processes, a little time to change his train of thought from one subject to another, but a woman can leap lightly from Mrs. B's feather cake to somebody's abdominal operation with perfect continuity of torque.—Ohio State Journal.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.
O. O. MEINTYRE.

New York, Oct. 28.—When I was a boy I was pigeon-toed, and then I began to follow the bricks of the pavement in my home town and my feet flared out, and there are those who say that I am now "Pie-footed." A man who is "pie-footed" can never become a graceful fox-trotter, but I have tried, and angels could do no more.

The other night in the Cafe Moderne of the Majestic I saw a litho young woman who danced like Old Man Tarpachoro's wife—if he was married. I don't know. And I asked the hostess, Miss Evelyn Unbliss, if the lady would dance with me.

"I do not know," she said. "But I'll ask. I represent her in America."

"Who is she that she needs representation?" I asked. "She looks to me like she could represent herself ably." Miss Unbliss coughed apologetically behind her hand and tried to make it easy for me, but finally said: "Why that is Mrs. Vernon Castle."

"Oh," I said, "is that all she is?" And I went right away from there so quickly that I almost forgot my hat. And this is to let Mrs. Castle know that I was the rude young man, but she ought to be grateful, for I saved her buying a new pair of shoes. Poor Vernon is a soldier now and he doesn't make the money that he did when he was nimbly skipping about the stage in a sport shirt and flannel trousers.

An incompetent actress who knew a girl who knew a man who knew Florence La Badie, the movie star, had been annoying everybody at the Thauver studies trying to get a job. All she got was advice to return home to her rich husband and forget her movie ambitions.

Finally she managed to steal into Miss La Badie's dressing room and started to appeal for work.

"I've dived off a ship; I've ridden a horse off a cliff," she began; "I've rolled down a flight of stairs, I've ridden a motorcycle into a lake. I've been dragged from a rope behind a runaway horse."

"You must be tired," said Flo. "My maid will take you out in the hall and give you a place to sit down."

A man appeared on Broadway the other day wearing a robin's egg blue derby. Outside of a runaway there were no casualties. Another man I saw on Fifth avenue had a pearl white derby and he had a monocle in his eye.

I followed him for six blocks waiting for it to drop—but it didn't. It was much like the nervous man waiting for the other shoe to fall.

Franklin P. Adams, who conducts the Counting Tower in the Tribune, reported in big type in his column that Samuel Merwin would write one story of the world series for him. The stunt was advertised for days ahead and naturally there was great expectancy.

The day dawned auspiciously. The Tribune readers turned anxiously to the Counting Tower. This is what Merwin wrote: "The Boston Red Sox defeated the Brooklyn Robins at Ebbets Field yesterday afternoon."

A new room has been opened at the Ritz called The Oval Room. It has oval tables, oval dishes and even some of the waiters have oval heads. Everything is running to rooms of this name and that name in hotels. No one seems to know where it will stop—and incidentally, few care.

A man lost a diamond studded cigarette case near Times Square the other day. A newsboy found it and returned it to the owner. The man gave him a long talk on honesty and a dime. "Thanks," said the boy. "My mother thanks you and my father thanks you. But I cannot take your money. You think more of money than I ever will."

Luck

A little bit of effort, a little bit of thought,
A little bit of daring and of pluck,
A little bit of courage in the fight that's being fought,
All this is often looked upon as luck.

A little bit of vision, and of faith,
A little, too,
A bit of stern resistance when you're struck,
A little bit of purpose in the work you have to do,
All this is in the masonry of luck.

A little bit of wisdom, and the magic of a smile,
Some real determination when you're stuck,
The grit to keep on going till you make another mile,
Are catalogued and labeled under luck.

The wish to travel pathways that were never trod before,
To hold the lines against the foes that buck,
To keep the spirit heating when the flesh is weak and sore,
All this is in the parentage of luck.

To do the right when wrong would seem to fill your purse with gold,
To cling to truth, nor fear the devil's muck,
To play your part unselfishly, be ever brave and bold,
Herein you find the mystery of luck.

White Man Stabbed By Negro; Arrest Is Made

Louis Evans, white, aged 23, of No. 1311 Union street, was stabbed in the chest near his right lung by a colored man at Eleventh and Findlay streets early Friday evening. Chas. Jackson, negro, of Thirteenth street, was later arrested and charged with the cutting.

Evans, who until a week ago was employed at the Portsmouth Paving Brick Company's plant, and Ernest Stout were on their way to the Woodmen of the World meeting. They had an appointment to meet Will Sargent at the above corner at 7 o'clock. While awaiting him they stepped into the "Arbogast saloon" for a glass of beer. Evans said, and just as they came out a moment later an old man stepped up to him, saying he had something to tell him. The man appeared not wanting to be overheard and led the way across the street towards Simon and Thicken's grocery.

Just then Evans noticed three colored men following him and one of them insisted upon him waiting for him. He told him he first wanted to listen to what the old man had to tell him. He said the negro then began cursing and threatening to shoot him.

Evans said all he said in reply was "All right" and tried to get into the store to telephone for the police but before he could do so he was slashed on the right side of the coat. Evans then ran across the street to enter the saloon and call for police when the negro was upon him again and plunged the knife into his chest, he falling against the glass door of the saloon, breaking the glass.

The knife wielder and his two companions ran to the opposite corner and after halting for a moment disappeared in Paradise Alley. Evans went to Dr. L. D. Alford's office to have his wound dressed.

Jackson was arrested at the Republican meeting place on Gallia street by Officers Flowers and Goodman at 8:43 o'clock. He was not questioned and a charge of cutting with intent to kill was placed against him. The police say that Evans is the third person whom Jackson has cut.

Campaigns To Close In Spirited Manner

Next week will probably witness the final scenes in the big political campaign which have been waged with considerable enthusiasm by all parties.

County meetings and rallies are to be held each evening. The places and the speakers have not been definitely decided upon.

Thursday evening Hon. Charles A. Towne, well-known corporation lawyer, New York City, and one of the most gifted orators in the United States, who is ranked by many as being second only to Hon. William J. Bryan, will address a big Democratic rally to be held on the Gallia street esplanade.

Should the weather be cold or rainy, the meeting will be held at Distel hall.

Then on Friday evening the Republicans will hold their largest rally of the campaign with United States Senator Warren G. Harding as the principal speaker. On this evening Distel hall, Seventh and Chillicothe streets, will be gaily decorated in honor of the occasion.

The Whitaker-Glessner Steel company employees' Hughes Banquet Club are contemplating sending several hundred members to the meeting.

Saturday evening there will be numerous precinct meetings. Monday of the week following will be the day of impatience, "The Day Before Election."

Tuesday the voters who have registered will go to the polls, then the battle of the ballot will begin and the winner will be announced.

Wednesday will see one of the most warmly contested campaigns closed and practically forgotten.

Republican Orators Are To Get Busy Next Week

Republican rallies to be held at various points in the county next week, as announced by D. C. Willard Gustin, secretary of the Scioto County Republican Executive Committee, Saturday, are as follows:

Tuesday evening, Hon. Harry W. Miller and Hon. E. K. S. Clinkenbeard will address a meeting at Friendship.

Hon. Henry T. Bannan and Judge George Osborn are the speakers at a meeting to be held at Hartman's hall, Wheelersburg. Wednesday evening, Hon. Mark A. Crawford, Hon. George W. Sheppard and Superintendent of the Greenlawn Cemetery Henry Cline will address a meeting at the Berea school house.

Thursday evening, Hon. Henry T. Bannan and Judge A. T. Holcomb will speak at South Webster.

Saturday evening, Hon. George W. Sheppard and Henry Cline will speak in the Rushlawn school house.

Y. M. C. A. BOYS IN MOCK ELECTION

Cleveland, O., Oct. 28.—The Y. M. C. A. boys of Ohio are voting today in a mock election on president, governor and United States senator. Indications are that fifteen hundred boys in Cleveland will cast ballots. Simultaneously sixteen boys' branches of the association in other cities, including Cincinnati, Columbus, and Dayton, will take a straw vote. Results of the vote from all points will be sent to Cleveland tonight.

The purpose is to familiarize the boys with methods of registering and voting and get them interested in the campaign issue.

TO REORGANIZE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Ironton, Oct. 28.—Dwight E. Smith and Albert A. Gottlieb representatives of the McKean Service Co. of Indianapolis, arrived in Ironton last night to conduct the Chamber of Commerce campaign which is to be formally opened next Monday. The Chamber of Commerce is to be reorganized.

Held Masked Social

Over 200 attended the Halloween social given by the M. W. L. on Friday evening. After the regular business session the application of Harry Walker of Manchester, O., was favorably balloted upon.

At eight o'clock the hall was opened to the guests, the greater number of whom were masked. All kinds of refreshments were served. One of the main attractions in the large hall was O. L. Shattley who spent the evening in making candy. Gerald Adams and sister, Arlie Adams, of the West Side, rendered a vocal duet. Eva Hunt sang a song, Edwin Ledwick played a solo on the clarinet, Fred Klingman played several selections on a ukulele and sang, Bert Newman played the piano and Howard Mackey rendered several instrumental selections. The degree team had charge of the arrangements and were complimented on the splendid evening's entertainment.

If you have a room which is not occupied you should be using TIMES WANT ADS.

Deal Is Closed

The Hutchins and Hamlin Company Saturday sold one of their eight-room houses on Kinney's Lane to Sheriff E. W. Smith, who bought it as an investment.

HOW TO VOTE

To cast a full vote for his choice for president and vice president, a voter must adopt one of two methods:

First, he may make an "X" in the circle beneath the emblem of the party whose ticket is headed by his choice for president and vice president. Neglecting to so mark his ballot with one "X" in the circle beneath the emblem, the voter, in order to vote for his candidate for president and vice president must then mark an "X" in front of the names of each of the twenty-four candidates for elector, which names follow next after his candidate for president and vice president.

In other words if an elector desires to vote for Woodrow Wilson he may mark an

"X" in the circle under the rooster and thus assure the counting of a full vote for the president. Or failing to so mark his ballot he must place an "X" in the little square before each name of the twenty-four candidates for presidential elector on the Democratic ticket. To place an "X" in front of the name of one elector is to cast but one twenty-fourth of a vote. It is one "X" in the circle or twenty-four "X's" in the squares. There is no square in front of the president's or vice president's name. No "X" can be placed in front of either. If a careless voter attempts to mark his ballot other than as indicated above one "X" in the circle or twenty-four squares, he loses his ballot.

IRONTON BRANCH TO GO ON FULL TIME

Ironton, Oct. 28.—The Ironton branch of the Excelsior Shoe company will go on next week in full which will be good news to many. The plant will be put to its crowded capacity, employing more people than ever before.

There will be employed between 300 and 400 people. The plant is now running less than half capacity, employing about 150 hands. This number will be more than doubled and soon there will probably be 400 people at work.

Meeting At Bertha

An interesting Republican rally was held at the Bertha Post Office school house Friday evening. Judge A. T. Holcomb discussed the question as to whether President Wilson had kept the United States out of war. Judge George M. Osborn explained the general policies of the Republican party and a short history of the Mexican situation and the conditions that exist today were related by Attorney Arnold C. Schapiro.

Sentiment Of Shopmen Strongly Favors Wilson

Ironton, O., Oct. 28.—A poll of the C. & O. shops at Russell, taken Friday, shows that the sentiment in the shops is almost unanimous for Wilson for president, with Hughes receiving the benefit of about half the doubtful votes. The doubtful ones probably will change their minds before the election day rolls around and will cast their ballot for Wilson and against Hughes, denounced by the great labor federations throughout the land as "the enemy of labor and progress," and "a president who desires war."

Health Notes

(Issued by the Anti-Tuberculosis League of Scioto County)

Drinking water with meals aids digestion.

In the United States, every three minutes some person dies of tuberculosis; about two every week in Scioto county.

You have your automobile looked over frequently for possible defects; why not give your body the same consideration?

Don't try to be "a strong man," the champion athlete often dies young. Be a moderate exponent of exercise.

Many backward pupils are backward purely and simply because, through physical defects, they are unable to perform all the work expected of them. Every progressive community is now establishing medical inspection of school children. Why not Portsmouth?

Chronic constipation can often be relieved by exercise, water drinking, eating fruits and a small quantity of bran taken mixed with breakfast food or made into cakes.

Darkness, poor ventilation, quack doctors, and patent medicines are the friends of tuberculosis. Sunshine, the open window, and honest doctors are its enemies.

avoid persons who are its victims. Pneumonia, heart disease, and ear inflammations are some of its complications.

Mrs. X.—There is no positive method by which one may prevent contracting infantile paralysis. However, there are some rules that should be followed when the disease is epidemic. The child's general health should be well looked after, all milk pasteurized, rooms where children must assemble should be kept well ventilated, and the nose and throat sprayed with a mild antiseptic solution several times daily.

Chas. Smedley Moves Here

The Ironton Irontonian Saturday morning said:

"Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smedley, who have been residing in the Truly cottage at Third and Madison streets, have moved to Portsmouth, where Mr. Smedley has charge of a large grocery store. Mr. Smedley was formerly employed with the N. & W. railroad company.

The latest telephone wires in Portsmouth are those leading to the TIMES WANT AD department.

MANY REPUBLICANS PLAN TO ATTEND COLUMBUS RALLY

It is expected that from three to five hundred local Republicans will make the trip on the Hughes special, which will leave Monday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, over the Norfolk and Western railroad for Columbus.

The committee, selling round trip tickets for $3 Friday, met with considerable success.

Arrangements have been made to have the train stop at Lucasville, Pikeston and Waverly. At each point arrangements have been given that delegations will join the Portsmouth Republicans.

Luncheon will be served enroute. A local caterer will prepare sandwiches for the trip.

Unique banners have been prepared and some real stunts have been planned for the Scioto county delegation, while marching in the huge torchlight parade, which will be held at Columbus Monday evening.

The special is due to arrive at Columbus at 6:30. Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for president, will arrive at 7. The parade will move promptly at this hour.

At 7:30 Mr. Hughes will deliver an address at Memorial Hall, Broad street.

It should be borne in mind that to secure the $3.00 rate, it will be imperative on your part to get your ticket from a member of the executive committee, or at the headquarters of the Scioto County Republican Club. Your ticket will cost you $4.00 if purchased at the N. & W. depot or N. & W. city ticket office.

OBITUARY

Paul Everett Allen

Paul Everett Allen, bright little fourteen-months-old baby son of Oscar Allen, a molder, at the Whitaker-Glessner company's plant, died at the family home, No. 1328 Mound street, Saturday morning at 3 o'clock. The child had been suffering with stomach trouble for the past eight days. Besides the grief-stricken parents he is survived by an only brother, Nelson Allen, aged 3 years. No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral, but it will probably take place Monday.

Mrs. Caroline Feurt

Mrs. Caroline Feurt, aged 73, for many years an honored and highly esteemed resident of Franklin Furnace, passed away Saturday morning, her death taking place at the home of her faithful daughter, Mrs. Jennie Gerlach. Several years ago Mrs. Feurt was stricken with paralysis and since that time she had practically been an invalid.

Mrs. Feurt was a widow of the late Clinton Feurt, who died four years ago. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Jennie Gerlach, one son, Albert Feurt, of this city, and four sisters and two brothers: Mrs. J. C. Lindsay, of Geneva, O.; Mrs. P. J. Brown, of Sciotoville, Mrs. George M. Salladay, of this city, Mrs. John F. Noel, of this city, and John Feurt, who is in Canada, and Will Feurt, of the Scioto Trail.

Mrs. Feurt was a most estimable woman and she will be missed. Kind and charitable to all, she was a sweet and lovable character.

G. F. Coldiron

G. F. Coldiron, aged 67, of Catlettsburg, Ky., and formerly of Portsmouth, was suddenly called by death on Thursday, Oct. 27, at 3 o'clock, at Catlettsburg. His death was due to a complication of diseases, which has been pressing on him for the past year. The deceased was well known in Portsmouth and was well liked.

He leaves three sons, S. H. of Columbus, Taylor, of Washington, C. H. and Clarence, of Catlettsburg, and four daughters, Mrs. James Barnett, Vina and Bertha at Catlettsburg, and Mrs. Milt Saffner, of Sixth street, Portsmouth, besides a host of friends in mourning his loss. His wife and one son preceded him to the Great Beyond.

George Vetter Is Honored

George Vetter, of this city, has been elected secretary of the newly formed Dormitory Debating Society of Aquinas College in Columbus. He is the youngest son of Mrs. Sophia Vetter, of New Fifth street.

BUILDING PERMITS

Philip Jacobs, one-story brick garage at No. 735 Third street, $1600.

WILBURN IS HIT BY STRAY BULLET

Orville Wilburn, aged 20 years, an employee of the S. Monroe & Son Company, received a slight bullet wound while at work on the new flood wall near Wheeling and Offene streets, late Friday afternoon.

Wilburn was mounted high upon one of the wall buttresses prying loose the wooden concrete forms when a bullet coming from the direction of the foot of

Thompson street, struck him just over the left eye, inflicting a small but painful wound. After he succeeded in stopping the flow of blood Wilburn pluckily continued with his work, later going to his boarding house on Mill street. He was again back to work as usual Saturday morning and had not even visited a physician to have the wound dressed. His home is near Carter City, Ky.

Excavating For Pumping Station

The S. Monroe & Son Company continues to make rapid headway with the new flood wall job. It now has the wall poured up as far as Wheeling and Offene streets, with the exception of the different openings left for hauling material through. Work has also been started excavating for the foundation of the flood pumping station opposite the Veneer works.

To Celebrate Anniversary

Portsmouth Court, Tribe of Ben Hur, devoted most of its weekly meeting Friday evening to perfecting plans for celebrating its sixteenth anniversary on November 17. Invitations have been extended to all of the supreme officers of the order and also to the Ashland, Ky., and Huntington, W. Va., courts to attend the celebration. Refreshments and dancing followed the business meeting.

To Initiate Big Class

Plans were made Friday evening at a meeting of River City Camp No. 20, Woodmen of the World, for a big holiday class initiation, to be held the third week in December.

The ceremonies of initiation were conferred upon Elmer Applegate, S.

Williams and Karl Karasus, and the following applications were received last night: D. Boon, B. Wilson and G. Davis.

A report of the Cincinnati Woodmen meeting was made by District Manager Roy McElhenny.

Roberts Files Suit Against Malavazos

An action was filed in common pleas court by Robert L. Roberts, local contractor, Friday against Chris Malavazos, proprietor of Malavazos Candy Kitchen, Fifth and Chillicothe streets, for money alleged due upon labor and material furnished to remodel the rooms in the Richardson block.

On August 26, 1915, the plaintiff says that he entered into contract with the defendant to furnish the labor and material to remodel certain rooms in the Richardson block. He was then to be paid ten per cent additional for doing the work. He further says that the material and labor amounted to $2,615.23. With the ten per cent, the amount due is $2,876.75. The defendant paid

$1,100, leaving a balance due of $1,686.75. The Little Lumber Company and Alex M. Glockner are made party defendants, as the petition sets forth that they hold mechanical liens; the former's account is $457.51 and the latter $901.65. Both are asked to set out their claims.

Then on October 27, 1915, the petition avers that the plaintiff contracted to decorate the rooms for $1,510. Extras, it is alleged, brought this amount to $1,714.03. Upon this total, the defendant paid $750. Judgment against the defendant for $2,551.38 is asked. Millar and Micklethwait represent the plaintiff.

Postpone Memorial

Charles M. Eligor, Owen Hopkins and Frank Schmidt, the committee in charge of the annual Jr. O. U. A. M. memorial, scheduled for Sunday, have failed to complete arrangements and Mr. Eligor, chairman of the committee, announced Saturday that the memorial had been postponed indefinitely. The matter will be taken up at the meeting of the Jr. O. U. A. M. next Thursday evening.

Move Offices Tonight

After today's work is done the Whitaker-Glessner Company will begin moving in earnest into their handsome new office building in New Boston. A large force of men will have charge of the moving and will remain on the job all night. All the offices are expected to be in the handsome new structure by Monday morning.

Removed Home
Mrs. Mary Hoxley, who has been a patient at Hempstead hospital for several weeks, was moved to her home 1725 Baird avenue by Daehler's ambulance Friday afternoon.

Thousands of people go through TIMES WANT ADS every night. They read them with profit.

Schools Closed

Owing to the prevalence of scarlet fever at Friendship, the school at that place has been closed temporarily. The teachers are Earl Chandler and Miss Emma Thatcher.

Held Debate
The Buena Vista-Elm Tree Library society held a debate on "Woman Suffrage" at Elm Tree Thursday night. The next meeting of the society will be held at Buena Vista.
